

Sir Ivor Batchelor

The knighthood conferred on Professor Ivor Batchelor in the Queen's Birthday Honours List will be acclaimed by his many friends and colleagues, both within psychiatry and outside it, as a fitting recognition.

Sir Ivor became the first holder of the Chair of Psychiatry in Dundee in 1962, and the high standing of psychiatry and psychiatric teaching in Dundee owes much indeed to his influence, vision, and wise counsel. But, of course, far beyond the local scene he has made many distinguished contributions, some beyond the boundaries of psychiatry itself. He was a member of the Porritt Committee, which reported on the review of the medical services in Great Britain; and through his past membership of the Scottish General Nursing Council and then the Briggs Committee he has helped to shape the future of education in the nursing profession. He has now been appointed a member of the new Central Council for Nursing, Midwifery and Health Visiting.

Sir Ivor's personal record of research earned him election as Fellow of the Royal Society of Edinburgh, and he has contributed to the work of the Medical Research Council as Chairman of the Council's Neurosciences Board. His chairmanship of the committee which reported on the staffing of mental handicap hospitals produced a constructive analysis which will surely have an enduring influence on British psychiatry for years to come. It was a further notable compliment to him when he was appointed a member of the Royal Commission on the National Health Service. And throughout these labours he has remained to his colleagues an inspiring clinician and teacher.

READING LISTS IN PSYCHIATRY—1981

This new series of specialized Reading Lists gives a much wider coverage of the most notable work as seen by experts in their particular fields.

Part I Mental Handicap, Forensic Psychiatry, Social and Community Psychiatry, Psychiatry of Old Age. Pp 9. 35p.

Part II Addictions, Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. Pp 10. 35p.

Part III Psychotherapy (in preparation)

Part IV General Reading List. Pp 41 + contents list. £1.00

This list is compiled by Dr. J. Birtchnell and Dr. E. Gordon in a novel way using many subsections which include not only well-established psychiatric divisions such as 'affective disorders', 'behaviour therapy', 'disorders in childhood' but also specifically 'female issues', 'employment', 'attitudes to the body and face', 'the interface between psychiatry and religion' and many more. Specially important references are printed in rather darker type. References also appearing in the specialist reading lists (above) are marked with an asterisk.
