

INTERCONTINENTA no. 1 (1978)

Gerard J. Telkamp

Urban History and European Expansion: a Review of Recent Literature Concerning Colonial Cities and a Preliminary Bibliography (1965-1978), 76 pages

This bibliographic essay presents a survey of the literature published during the last decade concerning colonial cities and colonial urban development. Its focus is on the importance of multi-disciplinary and comparative approaches and the possible relationships between the many topics within the theme of colonial urban history.

Price: US $ 2.—, or Hfl. 5.—

(including postage and handling).

Payment to accompany order: via Postal Giro into account 50 75 70 of "Rijksuniversiteit Leiden". Via bank: account no. 45.10.78.403 at AMRO-Bank, Leiden; or via Bank draft or International Postal Money Order.

In all cases, please quote:

554-208 CENTRE EUROPEAN EXPANSION

In case of difficulties with transferring currency, please inform the Centre, as it may be possible to make suitable arrangements.

comparative studies in overseas history publications of the leiden centre for history of european expansion general editor: H.L. Wesseling

Vol. I - Expansion and Reaction - H.L. Wesseling (ed.)

Essays on European Expansion and Reactions in Asia and Africa, by F. Braudel, H. Brunschwig, S.N. Eisenstadt, J.C. Heesterman, J.-L. Miège, R. Robinson, I. Schoffer, H.L. Wesseling and E. Zürcher.

1977. vii, 188 p., ISBN 90 6021 416 1
Gld 40.-- cloth / Gld 15.-- paperback

In preparation:

Vol. II - Reappraisals in Overseas History -
P.C. Emmer and H.L. Wesseling (eds.)

Essays on Post-war Histo:igraphy about European Expansion, by Ch. Bayly, H. Bley, L. Blussé, H. Brunschwig, A. Hopkins, J.-L.
Miège, N. Steengaard, J. Stengers, H.L. Wesseling and G. Winius.

1978. approx. 200 p.
approx. Gld 40.-- cloth / Gld 15.-- paperback

leiden university press
p.o. box 442 the hague
the netherlands

new series

available through your bookseller or directly from the publisher

