The American Chief Executive:

The Presidency and the Governorship

by Joseph E. Kallenbach

A scholarly study of the offices of President and state governor in America, this book employs the comparative-analytical technique in dealing with the historical origins and constitutional foundations of the offices, the process of selection and tenure, and the powers and functions of the chief executive. Ample historical and descriptive data, extensive bibliography and source citations serve as a guide to supplementary reading and for research ideas.

622 pages. $9.50

The Metropolis:

Its People, Politics, and Economic Life

by John C. Bollens and Henry J. Schmandt

A comprehensive and multidimensional analysis of the metropolis as a dynamic system of interacting relationships among people, organizations, and institutions, this book covers social characteristics and trends, economic developments, physical and land-use considerations, and government and politics. The authors conclude with an appraisal of the complex whole of metropolitan life and its future.

643 pages. $8.95

The American Legal System,

Revised Edition

by Lewis Mayers

An up-to-date edition of the monumental work which provided the first integrated record of the entire fabric of American justice. A systematic account of our legal institutions, as distinguished from our laws. Dr. Mayers gives both a descriptive and a critical analysis of the historical development and current status of the operation and interrelation of state and federal courts, and of administrative tribunals (for cases of voluntary arbitration and for several types of military cases).

Professional Placement Service at 1966 Annual Meeting

(September 6-10, 1966)

A professional placement service will again be available to members of The American Political Science Association attending the New York meeting. The placement service will be provided by the U.S. Employment Service. The primary purpose is to provide an efficient means for employers to meet prospective employees and vice versa.

The Professional Placement Service is entirely separate from the APSA's Personnel Service and requires separate registration. There is no fee for use of the Professional Placement Service by employers or applicants at the Convention.

FOLLOW UP: Orders and applications will be returned to the local Employment Service Office after the Annual Meeting. The office will determine if a satisfactory placement occurred and, if not, will make further recruitment or replacement efforts.

All State Employment Service local offices accept orders and applications in the field of political science on a year-round basis as a regular part of their professional service.

If you plan to attend the Conference and utilize the Placement Service, please mail the form below as soon as possible, but not later than August 5, 1966. Application and/or employer order forms will be forwarded to you upon receipt of the following information:

1966 AFRICAN TOUR-SEMINAR PROGRAM

11 countries—32 days—August 5-September 6

Because of the success of past Tour-Seminar programs, the Association is offering another in its series of travel study opportunities during the summer of 1966, in Africa.

In addition to direct conversations with governmental leaders of the countries on the itinerary, tour-seminar participants will meet with members of the faculties of local universities, U.S. Foreign Service Personnel, foreign press representatives, etc. Opportunity will be provided for a limited amount of personal research and sight-seeing. The entire trip is being planned with the cooperation and support of the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Information Service.

TRANSPORTATION

As was the case with the 1965 Latin American Tour-Seminar, this program will be carried out on regularly scheduled jet flights of reputable international carriers.

The African Tour-Seminar is based on the group fare, requiring a minimum of 25 participants.

EXPENSES

The cost to Association members will be about $1600—substantially less than it would be for a similar trip arranged on an individual basis. Included in the fare will be round-trip tourist air transportation, first class hotel accommodations, numerous meals, baggage handling, and airport transfers. (On the basis of past experience, participants can expect that the cost of this educational activity will be accepted as deductible expense on Federal tax returns.)

For further information concerning this unique educational, research, and travel opportunity, write immediately to: APSA 1966 African Tour-Seminar, The American Political Science Association, 1726 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. A brochure giving full details and reservation information will be mailed to you.
