

MEMBERS OF THE MONTH

RAMIRO BERARDO

NOVEMBER MEMBER OF THE MONTH

The Ohio State University

“People should not only accept but embrace the learning potential that only failure can provide. If you are going to have a productive career, you will fail more than succeed and you should welcome that, as painful as it may be sometimes.”

CHRISTINA WOLBRECHT

DECEMBER MEMBER OF THE MONTH

University of Notre Dame

“APSA—in particular, its journals, conferences, and other programs—is a central means by which I am able to learn from and be in conversation with others in my field and discipline. I could not do my job without those resources and opportunities.”

CAMILLE BURGE

JANUARY MEMBER OF THE MONTH

Villanova University

“While I enjoy watching many students’ attitudes towards policies or groups evolve, I can only hope that my students carry these lectures with them outside of the classroom and speak truth to power at home or in conversations both casual and in the workplace when they know something is not completely accurate or at least is misrepresented.”
