Max Planck Encyclopedia of International Procedural Law

The home of international law in practice

Available as part of the Max Planck Encyclopedias of International Law

GENERAL EDITOR

Professor H el ene Ruiz Fabri, Director of the Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for Procedural Law

The Max Planck Encyclopedia of International Procedural Law (MPEiPro) maps and analyzes the systems and processes through which international law is made, interpreted, and adjudicated in practice. It takes a broad view of international procedure, examining it from three different angles: technical points of procedure within specific institutions or across similar organizations; comparative accounts of families of institutions within specific subject areas or with similar functions; and theoretical, interdisciplinary entries.

MAKING HUMAN DIGNITY CENTRAL TO INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW

A Critical Legal Argument

MATTHEW MCMANUS

“At a time when much of the post-war human rights project seems to be foundering on so many fronts, McManus offers us a timely and bold recasting of that project. Both analytically sophisticated and profoundly readable, this book makes a forceful case for placing a retooled concept of human dignity at the very heart of international human rights.”
