The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies

31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON, WC1H 0PP

President: PROFESSOR G. S. KIRK, Litt.D., F.B.A.

The Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies and in association with the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London

1. A Library of some 50,000 volumes, containing many costly works and rare periodicals.

2. Some 4,000 coloured slides covering a wide variety of subjects, sets of slides with lecture texts, and film strips.

Books and slides can be sent to Members by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at the above address.

Four general meetings, with lectures, are held in London annually, and there are other meetings in different parts of the country.

Subscribers receive the Society's two annual publications: The Journal of Hellenic Studies, one of the foremost British periodicals in the field of Greek scholarship, containing articles, illustrations and book reviews; Archaeological Reports, a fully illustrated account of fresh discoveries in Greece and Greek lands, with bulletins announcing important new acquisitions by museums in Britain.

These two periodicals are on sale to the general public.

The annual subscription to the society is £9.00. The Composition fee for life-membership is £45.00 for those over 65 years of age, after 5 years' membership. The subscription for Libraries and Student Associates is £10.00 and £4.00 respectively. There is no entrance fee.

Applications for membership or enquiries about the Society should be addressed to the Secretary. Telephone 01-387 7495.

The Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies

31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON, WC1H 0PP

President: PROFESSOR A. L. F. RIVET, F.S.A.

The Society was formed in 1910 to promote the study of the archaeology, art, literature, and history of Italy and the Roman Empire down to about the year A.D. 700, by publishing journals, forming a library, and holding meetings.

The Journal of Roman Studies is published annually and contains articles written by leading British and foreign scholars and reviews of recent publications. It is abundantly illustrated. The Society also publishes Britannia, devoted to Romano-British and connected studies, to which the annual survey of Romano-British excavations, previously published in the Journal, is now transferred.

The Society maintains, in conjunction with the Hellenic Society, a joint library of works on classical antiquity and a collection of lantern slides. Members are entitled to borrow books and slides, which can be sent to them by post, and may also consult books in the library of the London University Institute of Classical Studies, which is complementary to that of the Societies.

The annual subscription is £9.00, which entitles members and schools to one of the publications (£14.50 for both). Institutions pay £10 for each publication. Life membership for members of five years' standing and of age 65 or over, £45. Student associates £4.00.

All enquiries should be addressed to the Secretary. Telephone 01-387 8157.

The following may be obtained from The Hellenic Society, 31-34 Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0PP.

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The main aims of the Classical Association are to promote and sustain interest in classical studies, to maintain their rightful position in universities and schools, and to give scholars and teachers opportunities of meeting and discussing their problems. It organises an annual conference, lasting four or five days, in a university centre, and sponsors over 30 branches, which arrange programmes of lectures and discussions and many of which hold Greek and Latin Reading Competitions for Schools. Its activities are fully reported in its annual Proceedings, issued free to all members.

The present membership of the Association is approximately 4,500. Membership is open both to individuals and to institutions (annual subscription, £1.00; life subscription, for individuals only, £21.00). Members may obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review, £7.00; Quarterly, £7.00; combined subscription £13.00). Greece and Rome may also be obtained through the Association for an annual subscription of £4.25. Applications for membership and subscriptions for the journals (which should normally be received by January 31st in each year) should be addressed to the Treasurer, Mr. G. R. Watson, Dept. of Classics, The University, Nottingham NG7 2RD.

The Association can also supply copies of the Index to the First Series of the Classical Review (price £1.25 for members, £1.50 for non-members, post free) and of the last two issues of The Year's Work in Classical Studies, covering the years 1939-47 and 1945-47 (price £0.30 each volume, post free). These publications and details of the various occasional publications of the Association, including all Supplements to Greece and Rome, are obtainable from the Treasurer. Inquiries, other than about membership and publications, should be sent to either of the Secretaries (Dr. J. Percival, Dept. of Classics, University College, P.O. Box 95, Cardiff CF1 1XA, and Mrs. E. Varney, 30 Drury Lane, Lincoln LN1 3BN).

Contributions to the JOURNAL should be sent to Mr. Ewen Bowie, Corpus Christi College, Oxford OX1 4JF. Good photocopies, not original typescripts, should be submitted, since contributions which are not accepted will only be returned to authors by special arrangement. For style of references to be adopted see JHS lxxxix (1969) 1-5.

Books intended for review should be addressed to The Librarian, Hellenic Society,
31-34 Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0PP

Printed in Great Britain at the Alden Press, Oxford
