NATIONAL MEASURES TO IMPLEMENT INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW

*RESOLUTION V OF THE 25th INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
OF THE RED CROSS
(Geneva, 1986)*

Written representations by the International Committee of the Red Cross

This brochure contains all the written representations made by the ICRC to governments and National Societies as a follow-up to Resolution V of the 25th International Conference of the Red Cross (Geneva, 1986), entitled “National measures to implement international humanitarian law”:

- Circular letters of 28 April 1988 (as reproduced in the International Review of the Red Cross, March-April 1988 issue);
- “Interim report” sent with circular letters of 15 August 1989 (as reproduced in the International Review of the Red Cross, March-April 1991 issue);
- “Proposals aimed at helping States adopt national measures to implement international humanitarian law. ICRC’s compilation”, document sent in the form of notes verbales and circular letters of 18 January 1991.

In addition, there is a report entitled “Implementation of international humanitarian law. National measures” (doc. C.I/4.1/1) and its annex “Replies received from States to the ICRC’s written representations concerning national measures to implement international humanitarian law”. This report was prepared by the ICRC for the 26th International Conference of the Red Cross and Red Crescent (Budapest, 1991).

The brochure is available in English, French, Spanish and Arabic.

ARTICLES SUBMITTED FOR PUBLICATION
IN THE INTERNATIONAL REVIEW OF THE RED CROSS

The International Review of the Red Cross invites readers to submit articles relating to the various humanitarian concerns of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement. These will be considered for publication on the basis of merit and relevance to the topics to be covered during the year.

● Manuscripts will be accepted in English, French, Spanish, Arabic or German.

Texts should be typed, double-spaced, and no longer than 25 pages (or 6 000 words). Please send diskettes if possible.

● Footnotes (no more than 40) should be numbered superscript in the main text. They should be typed, double-spaced, and grouped at the end of the article.

● Bibliographical references should include at least the following details: (a) for books, the author's initials and surname (in that order), book title (underlined), place of publication, publishers and year of publication (in that order), and page number(s) referred to (p. or pp.); (b) for articles, the author's initials and surname, article title in inverted commas, title of periodical (underlined), place of publication, periodical date, volume and issue number, and page number(s) referred to (p. or pp.). The titles of articles, books and periodicals should be given in the original language of publication.

● Unpublished manuscripts will not be returned.

● Published works sent to the editor will be mentioned in the list of publications received and, if considered appropriate, reviewed.

● Manuscripts, correspondence and requests for permission to reproduce texts appearing in the Review should be addressed to the editor.

Articles, studies, and other signed texts from non-ICRC sources published in the Review reflect the views of the author alone and not necessarily those of the ICRC.

The International Review of the Red Cross is the official publication of the International Committee of the Red Cross. It was first published in 1869 under the title "Bulletin international des Sociétés de secours aux militaires blessés", and then "Bulletin international des Sociétés de la Croix-Rouge".

The International Review of the Red Cross is a forum for reflection and comment and serves as a reference work on the mission and guiding principles of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement. It is also a specialized journal in the field of international humanitarian law and other aspects of humanitarian endeavour.

As a chronicle of the international activities of the Movement and a record of events, the International Review of the Red Cross is a constant source of information and maintains a link between the components of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement.

The International Review of the Red Cross is published every two months, in four main editions:

French: REVUE INTERNATIONALE DE LA CROIX-ROUGE (since October 1869)

English: INTERNATIONAL REVIEW OF THE RED CROSS (since April 1961)

Spanish: REVISTA INTERNACIONAL DE LA CRUZ ROJA (since January 1976)

Arabic: المجلة الدولية للصليب الأحمر
(since May-June 1988)

Selected articles from the main editions have also been published in German under the title Auszüge since January 1950.

EDITOR: Jacques Meurant, D. Pol. Sci.

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), together with the League of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies and the 150 recognized National Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, is one of the three components of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement.

An independent humanitarian institution, the ICRC is the founding body of the Red Cross. As a neutral intermediary in case of armed conflict or disturbances, it endeavours on its own initiative or on the basis of the Geneva Conventions to protect and assist the victims of international and civil wars and of internal troubles and tensions, thereby contributing to peace in the world.
