If accepted for publication, the copyright of papers becomes the property of the Association ; but they may be re-published by permission of the Council, provided due acknowledgement be made of their having appeared in the JOURNAL.

Papers should, if possible, be typewritten ; they should be concisely written with subject matter logically arranged and sub-divided ; and with indications of the position, in the text, of illustrations, tables, etc.

TITLES should be as brief as consistent with clarity ; and in many cases the value of a paper is enhanced by a short SUMMARY.

ILLUSTRATIONS—if the number sent in is considered excessive, the author may be informed and given the opportunity of contributing to the cost.
