CJNS DISTINGUISHED REVIEWER OF THE YEAR for 2021
Presented in 2022

The Canadian Journal of Neurological Sciences (CJNS) sincerely appreciates the consistent and numerous high quality manuscript reviews that Dr. Hahn has provided for the CJNS. This award is based on review statistics from 2021.

Christopher Hahn, MD, FRCPC

Dr. Chris Hahn is an associate professor at the University of Calgary. Having spent most of his life in Calgary, he completed his medical school and residency at the University of Calgary before pursuing a fellowship in neuromuscular medicine at Harvard Medical School and a second fellowship in Multiple Sclerosis and Neuro-Immunology back at the University of Calgary.

His main research interests revolve around improving the care of patients with autoimmune encephalitis and other rare autoimmune diseases of the nervous system as well as transthyretin amyloidosis. He is also actively involved in medical informatics and has a passion for working with electronic health care systems to achieve better patient outcomes and improve clinician efficiency.

Thank you Dr. Hahn. We appreciate your dedication and support of our CJNS Journal.
