

CALYPSO MAGNOLIA

The Crosscurrents of Caribbean and Southern Literature

JOHN WHARTON LOWE

"Only John Wharton Lowe could have written such a magisterial and comprehensive literary study, one with an incredible historical and geographic sweep. This monumental book will change the way we think about the literary landscape of America and the Caribbean."

—Keith Cartwright,
University of North Florida
464 pages $39.95 paper

MAPPING THE COUNTRY OF REGIONS

The Chorographic Commission of Nineteenth-Century Colombia

NANCY P. APPELBAUM

"This insightful and ground-breaking book shows the multiple contradictions and paradoxes of mid-nineteenth-century nation building in Colombia, in particular, and in the Americas, more generally."

—Jorge Cañizares-Esguerra,
University of Texas at Austin
320 pages $34.95 paper

AN ISLANDWIDE STRUGGLE FOR FREEDOM

Revolution, Emancipation, and Reenslavement in Hispaniola, 1789-1809

GRAHAM T. NESSLER

"A major contribution to the scholarship on the Haitian Revolution and to the larger story of the struggle over slavery in the American world."

—Jeremy Popkin, University of Kentucky
312 pages $29.95 paper

SECURING SEX

Morality and Repression in the Making of Cold War Brazil

BENJAMIN A. COWAN

"Cowan expands our understandings of why dictatorships resonated in post-World War II Latin America and how the regimes and their opponents negotiated word and action."

—Jeffrey Lesser, Emory University
304 pages $32.95 paper

THE LOGIC OF COMPROMISE IN MEXICO

How the Countryside Was Key to the Emergence of Authoritarianism

GLADYS MCCORMICK

"An unprecedented, on-the-ground account of the relationships between peasants and the powerful Mexican state. The book is inspired in its melding of biography and regional history."

—Jeffrey W. Rubin, Boston University
304 pages $32.95 paper

ANTIRACISM IN CUBA

The Unfinished Revolution

DEVYN SPENCE BENSON

"A rare, archivally based study of Cuban racial politics in the post-1959 era. Benson pushes beyond the 'raceless' rhetoric of the Castro government to find glimpses of the ways Afro-Cubans subtly challenge attempts to silence their aspirations for racial equality."

—Frank Andre Guriid,
University of Texas at Austin
332 pages $29.95 paper

RIGHTLESSNESS

Testimony and Redress in U.S. Prison Camps since World War II

A. NAOMI PAIK

"This original and convincing book shows how the United States relies on prison camps in an era of both rights assertion and global dominance. Paik persuasively explains why these camps were created, why they persist, and why we must listen to those who are detained."

—Leti Volpp, University of California, Berkeley, School of Law
332 pages $29.95 paper

DOLLAR DIPLOMACY BY FORCE

Nation-Building and Resistance in the Dominican Republic

ELLEN D. TILLMAN

"Tillman's excellent work brings us closer to solving the puzzle of how U.S. military officials, who sincerely wished to reform Dominican institutions to mirror those in the United States, ended up contributing instead to a generation-long dictatorship."

—Alan McPherson, author of
The Invaded: How Latin Americans and their Allies Fought and Ended U.S. Occupations
296 pages $29.95 paper

JOURNALS

The Journal of Economic History

Published for the Economic History Association

Editors

Paul W. Rhode, University of Michigan, USA

Ann Carlos, University of Colorado, Boulder, USA

The Journal of Economic History is devoted to the interdisciplinary study of history and economics, and is of interest not only to economic historians but to social and demographic historians, as well as economists in general. The journal has broad coverage, in terms of both method and geographic scope. Topics include money and banking, trade, manufacturing, technology, transportation, industrial organization, labor, agriculture, servitude, demography, education, and the role of government and regulation. In addition, an extensive review section includes the latest books in economic history and related fields.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Editorial Policy

The Journal of Latin American Studies is published four times a year, in February, May, August and November. Its editorial offices are located at the Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London. The editorial board comprises area studies specialists based in the United Kingdom from all the principal social science disciplines, including history.

The Journal aims to publish recent research in the field of Latin American studies in economics, geography, politics, international relations, sociology, social anthropology and history. Articles on literature and the arts are not normally included, but the editors are pleased to consider contributions in the field of intellectual and cultural history. Articles with an interdisciplinary approach are particularly welcome.

Manuscript Submission (visit <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jlas>)

Articles submitted to the Journal should be original contributions. They should not be under consideration by another journal, nor have been published or be awaiting publication elsewhere. Translations of articles that have already been published will not be accepted. If an author is publishing a closely related article elsewhere, this fact should be stated in a cover note to the editors. Authors of articles published in the Journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of their paper.

Articles should be between 10,000 and 12,000 words, including footnotes, tables etc. The Journal is published in English, but articles may also be submitted in Spanish or Portuguese for peer review; if accepted for publication, the responsibility for translating articles rests with the author.

For full instructions on submissions and journal style, visit www.journals.cambridge.org/las/ifc.

The Journal publishes commissioned book reviews in each issue. Not all books received can be reviewed, and editorial policy gives preference to reviews of books regarded as being of major importance for the disciplines covered by the Journal. Unsolicited reviews cannot be considered.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material for which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

All editorial correspondence should be addressed to The Editors, Journal of Latin American Studies, Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, UK, or sent to jas@sas.ac.uk.

Proofs

Proofs of accepted articles will be sent to authors as pdf files for checking and correction of typesetting errors. Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Offprints

Contributors will receive a pdf file of their article.

This issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organisation established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
