Teaching French Women Writers of the Renaissance and Reformation

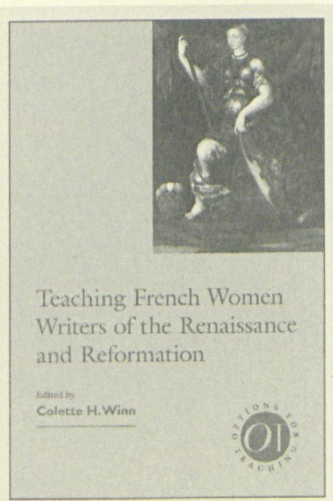

COLETTE H. WINN, ed.

"An excellent volume of essays on an increasingly important topic of research and instruction."

—Edwin M. Duval
Yale University

Teaching French Women Writers of the Renaissance and Reformation considers the issues critical to teaching recently rediscovered writers, such as Hélisienne de Crenne, Pernette Du Guillet, and Louise Labé, who have enriched the literary canon by offering alternative perspectives on the social, political, and religious issues of early modern France.

The volume considers techniques for reading women's writing alongside the texts of their male contemporaries and offers guidance on incorporating a range of resources into the classroom.
