

idea can be supremely instructive for us, and it would be a pity if some English Catholic publisher did not give English readers a translation of M. Dansette's work so that the passion and ferment of France might shake up our duller and more pragmatic selves.

NOTICE

1961 will mark the fifth centenary of the canonization of St Catherine of Siena. To mark the occasion it is proposed to erect a monument to her in Rome at a spot often passed by the Saint in her last days as she went to pray at the Tomb of the Apostle. Those who wish to assist in this project should send their offerings to the account of Istituto Opere di Religione, Vatican, at Barclays Bank Ltd, Chief Foreign Branch, 168 Fenchurch Street, London, E.C.3, with the mention 'Missionarie della Scuola—Monumento a S. Caterina da Siena'.
