Excerpts Pertaining to Elections, from the Constitution of the Canadian Political Science Association

Article VIII: Elections

- 8.1 The nominating committee shall consist of the President (non-voting) and three members of the Association who are not members of the Board of Directors, elected annually. (Replacement, when necessary, shall be designated by the President.)

Article VI: Officers

- 6.1 The officers of the Association shall be the President, the President-Elect, a Vice-President, a Secretary-Treasurer and, for the year before the Secretary-Treasurer retires, a Secretary-Treasurer-Elect.

Article VII: The Board of Directors

- 7.1 There shall be a Board of Directors composed of the following members:
- a) The President, President-Elect, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, Secretary-Treasurer-Elect, and Past-President;
 - b) The Managing Editors of the Journal;
 - c) The Programme Chairman;
 - d) Twelve other members, elected for a two-year term, one-half of whom shall be elected at each annual meeting.
- 6.3 Except for the office of Secretary-Treasurer, the term of office for each position shall be one year, or until a successor is elected providing, however, that the incumbent in an office remains eligible for re-election. The term of office of the Secretary-Treasurer shall be three years renewable for one term not to exceed three years. In the event that the incumbent does not intend to stand for re-election, the Board of Directors must instruct the Nominating Committee, at least nine months prior to the beginning of the third year of the Secretary-Treasurer's term of office, to receive nominations for the office of Secretary-Treasurer-Elect, such office to be held during the last year of the Secretary-Treasurer's term.
