Wordsworth

Edited by GIBERT T. DUNKLIN. On the occasion of the Wordsworth centenary, these lectures were delivered at Cornell and Princeton Universities. An important reappraisal of Wordsworth and his works, with contributions by Douglas Bush, Frederick A. Pottle, Earl Leslie Griggs, John Crowe Ransom, B. Ifor Evans, Lionel Trilling, and Willard L. Sperry. "A lively and stimulating reappraisal of Wordsworth's poetic achievement."—The Scotsman (Edinburgh). $3.00

"Piers Plowman" & Scriptural Tradition

By D. W. ROBERTSON, JR. and BERNARD F. HUPPE. The B-text of the great epic of the dying Middle Ages is analyzed to show the relation of the Scriptural allusions to the meaning and structure of the poem. The investigation seeks to show that these allusions are not mere decoration, but are central to the poem's purpose and, when fully understood, yield many of its most startling effects. $4.00

The Philosophy of the Enlightenment

By ERNST CASSIRER. Cassirer's great work, in the translation of Koelln and Pettegrove. "It will be welcomed by students of both literature and philosophy who consider the original one of the important works of our time."—Marjorie H. Nicolson, Columbia University. "A masterpiece of creative scholarship."—Charles W. Hendel, Yale University. $6.00
