

Winner of the first James Mooney Award sponsored by the Southern Anthropological Society

AND THEY ALL SANG HALLELUJAH

PLAIN-FOLK CAMP-MEETING RELIGION, 1800-1845

By Dickson D. Bruce, Jr.

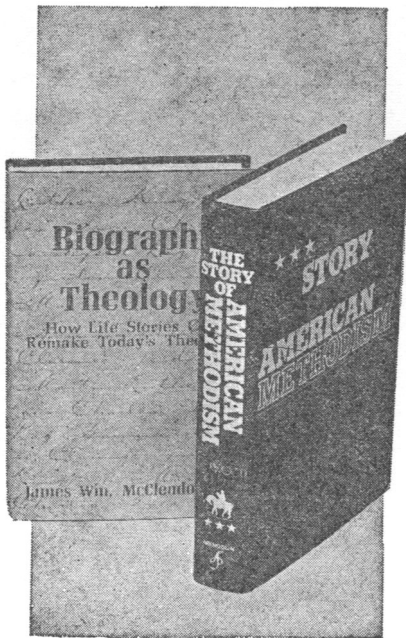

"An important book, it embodies what is to my knowledge the first attempt to analyze the frontier camp-meeting along structural lines. Students of religious movements will find here a major model for carrying on their work." – Sam S. Hill, Jr., author of Religion and the Solid South

160 pp., $7.50

from your bookstore, or

THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE PRESS
Knoxville 37916

BIOGRAPHY AS THEOLOGY

How Life Stories Can Remake Today's Theology

Biography has become something more than a model of exemplary living to inspire the faithful. James Wm. McClendon, Jr., proposes the use of biography as a way of doing theology. By looking at the lives of four significant persons, the author discovers a theology that is adequate to account for the kind of life those persons lived. Dag Hammarskjöld, Martin Luther King, Jr., Clarence Jordan, and Charles Ives show how biography is theology. Cloth, $13.95; paper, $4.95

THE STORY OF AMERICAN METHODISM

This comprehensive one-volume history of American Methodism traces the development of a new church in a new nation from its beginnings with the Wesleys in England to the changes and challenges of later twentieth-century America. Combines the best of modern critical research with rare readability and will provide sound information and interpretation for years to come. Frederick A. Norwood. Includes the story of the Evangelical United Brethren as part of Methodism. Cloth, $17.95; paper, $9.95

at your local bookstore
abingdon