

Announcement/Chronique

The Arthur Prior Memorial Conference

On August 18-23, 1989 an international joint session of the Australasian Associations of Philosophy and Logic will be held to mark the twentieth anniversary of Prior's death. Papers are invited on Prior, his work, and the subjects on which he wrote (for example, tense logic, modal logic, ethics, determinism, intensionality, ontology, time and change, self reference, indexicals, inferential definition, Aristotelian and medieval logic, logic and religion, epistemic, deontic and erotetic logics). The intention is to publish a selection of the conference proceedings in a Memorial Volume. The venue will be the University of Canterbury, New Zealand, where Prior held the Chair of Philosophy until 1958. Further details may be obtained from Jack Copeland, Philosophy Department, University of Canterbury, Private Bag, Christchurch 1, New Zealand.

THOUGHT AND EXPERIENCE

Peter H. Hess

In this remarkable, learned, and far-reaching essay Hess explores the difference between the cognitive and the non-cognitive manifestations of consciousness. He goes on to show how this distinction affects a wide range of questions in epistemology and in the philosophy of the mind. $25.00

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO PRESS