COMBINED UNIVERSITIES
THIRD COURSE IN ADVANCED OTOLOGY

Sunday 17 September to Friday 22 September, 1989 inclusive

This course follows the successful launch in 1987. The course is intended to cover all major aspects of otological practice including chronic ear surgery, meatoplasty, surgery of congenital ear disorders, radiology, otosclerosis and stapedectomy, facial nerve disorders, electrical testing, vertigo and acoustic tumours. It is directed at consultants, accredited specialists and trainees in their final years, and will include lectures, seminars, video presentations and discussions to a high level. An integral part of the course will be cadaveric temporal bone dissection and it will be an advantage to have attended a more basic dissection course previously. The course will be attractive to established consultants who seek revision/stimulation.

The course will be held mainly between Birmingham Dental Hospital and the University Halls of Residence and will be strictly limited to 20 persons. Early reservation is therefore advised.

The faculty will include Mr G. D. L. Smyth, Mr G. Browning, Mr J. Robinson, Mr A. L. Pahor, Mr D. Moffat, Mr R. T. Ramsden, Mr P. E. Robin, Mr D. Proops, Mr G. Brookes, Mr D. Adams, as well as other invited speakers.

The overall cost of the course will be £470 which includes all tuition, meals and accommodation (available at The University of Birmingham Halls of Residence). Hotel accommodation will be available at additional cost. There will be some social events.

Further information can be obtained by application to

Mrs Jo Collins,
Postgraduate Education Centre,
Dudley Road Hospital,
Birmingham B18 7QH

and the reservation of a place requires a deposit of £100 as early as possible but not later than 1 August, 1989.

Information may also be obtained by applying to

Instructions to Authors

Historical Articles. Articles of this type are generally encouraged, but it is obvious that they have to provide some new information or interpretation, whether it be about a well-known person or for example an instrument associated with him, but those from within a Hospital's own department who have made a hitherto less well-known contribution would be welcome.

Letters to the Editor. This feature is to be re-introduced to give those who wish to comment about a paper previously published within the Journal, an opportunity to express their views. Wherever possible, we shall ask the original author to add his further comment, thereby adding to the value of the contribution. Such letters should be sent as soon as possible after publication of each month's issue of the Journal in the hope of including them as soon as possible thereafter.

'Mini-papers, such as those which appear in the British Medical Journal, Lancet, or New England Journal of Medicine, will not be acceptable except on the rare occasion that they bring information of immediate interest to the reader.

Pathology. It is proposed to present on a monthly or bi-monthly basis, articles which are pathological interest with particular emphasis on the way the diagnosis was achieved, the techniques involved, etc. It is hoped that clinicians will involve their pathologists in these reports, and all illustrations must be of first-class quality. Where a department, particularly those overseas, may not have such specialized facilities, it may be possible, if a block or several unstained sections are provided for our Adviser to produce or supplement the illustration submitted. Only contributions of particular pathological interest will be accepted.

Radiology. It is proposed to introduce on a monthly or bi-monthly basis, short reports on cases in which the radiology has been crucial in the making of the diagnosis or the management of a particular case. This spot is to encourage clinicians and radiologists to produce material of particular interest in the specialty and to encourage co-operation in this field. Only presentations with first-class illustrations can be accepted and these must emphasise a problem of unusual clinical interest.

Check List for Authors/Secretaries

1. Title page—Titles should be short with names of the authors, higher degrees only and the city/country. Details of the departments in which the authors work should be put lower down.
An address for correspondence should be supplied together with the author who should receive this and this will ultimately appear beneath the list of references. If the paper was presented at a meeting, the details of this must be given and will be inserted at the bottom of the first page of the printed script.
2. Abstract—No paper will be accepted without this and it adds considerably to the Editor's time to have to write and request this if the paper is accepted.
3. To follow the Instructions to Authors with the way in which the paper is set out. It is preferred that each section should start on a fresh page with double spacing and wide margins.
4. References must be in the Harvard system; to submit a paper using the Vancouver system is automatically to have it returned or rejected.
5. Two sets of illustrations must be included, one of half-plate size and the other with the width of 80 mm. Illustrations must be clearly labelled with the author's name on the reverse side and where appropriate with an arrow to give orientation.
6. Authors to check manuscript and references to see that these match up particularly for dates and spelling.
7. Titles of Journals must be given in full with the date, volume number and first and last pages.
8. Consent to be obtained from a patient if a photograph of their face is to be reproduced.
9. If the author to whom correspondence is to be directed changes his address, he should let the Editorial Office know as soon as possible.
10. Page proofs will normally be sent out three months in advance and must be returned as soon as possible.
