The Confidence Trap

A History of Democracy in Crisis from World War I to the Present

David Runciman

“Rivetingly written for a wide audience, this is David Runciman’s best and most original book to date—bold, clear, astonishingly well informed, and consistently excellent. His ecumenical curiosity is as engaging as it is disarming, pulling you into a history that is effortless to read and leaves you thinking about its insights long after you put it down.”

—Ian Shapiro, author of The Real World of Democratic Theory

Cloth $29.95 978-0-691-14868-7

The Gamble

Choice and Chance in the 2012 Presidential Election

John Sides & Lynn Vavreck

“Sides and Vavreck have done more to bridge the worlds of campaign reporting and political science than any other academics working today. The Gamble, their penetrating and accessible study of the 2012 presidential election, is mandatory reading for anyone who cares about American politics.”

—Ryan Lizza, Washington Correspondent, The New Yorker

Cloth $29.95 978-0-691-15688-0

Conservative Internationalism

Armed Diplomacy under Jefferson, Polk, Truman, and Reagan

Henry R. Nau

“In this book, Henry Nau accomplishes the seemingly impossible, by recovering conservative internationalism as one of America’s long-standing and respected foreign policy traditions. In eliciting vigorous engagement from all political sides, his dispassionate and learned book makes us reexamine some of our most cherished assumptions about core aspects of world politics.”

—Peter J. Katzenstein, Cornell University

Cloth $35.00 978-0-691-15931-7

Redeeming The Prince

The Meaning of Machiavelli's Masterpiece

Maurizio Viroli

“Maurizio Viroli is the premier scholar of Machiavelli, having extended himself more than anyone else to encompass the Italian and Anglophone scholarship on the Florentine. This is a fine and telling book.”

—Harvey C. Mansfield, Harvard University

Cloth $26.95 978-0-691-16001-6

A Mathematics Course for Political and Social Research

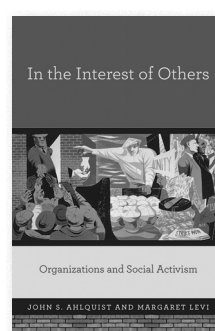

Will H. Moore & David A. Siegel

“The major hurdle in teaching math to political science graduate students isn’t the math. It’s convincing them to concentrate on difficult topics that seem abstruse and useless. This book persistently reminds students why quantitative methods are the coin of the political science realm. I can see it becoming a staple of graduate courses for years.”

—William Minozzi, Ohio State University

Paper $39.95 978-0-691-15917-1

Cloth $95.00 978-0-691-15995-9

In the Interest of Others

Organizations and Social Activism

John S. Ahlquist & Margaret Levi

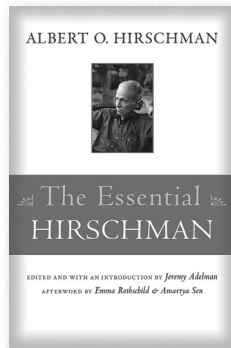

“Ahlquist and Levi have produced the very best rational-choice treatment of activist labor unions. Theoretically, methodologically, and empirically rich, their book is also a superb exemplar of modern comparative politics. In the Interest of Others is a classy and elegant study of a significant political problem.”

—Mark Lichbach, University of Maryland

The Essential Hirschman

Albert O. Hirschman
Edited and with an introduction by
Jeremy Adelman
Afterword by Emma Rothschild &
Amartya Sen

“A survivor of Nazi Germany, Albert Hirschman was an essential thinker—one of the very few best of the twentieth century. Wise, delightful, and full of life, he was incapable of writing a dull page. He knew what made people tick, and he knew what made societies work. This book glistens with insights, surprises, and paradoxes. Each chapter is a gem.”

—Cass R. Sunstein, coauthor of Nudge

Cloth $29.95 978-0-691-15990-4

The Passions and the Interests

Political Arguments for Capitalism
before Its Triumph
Albert O. Hirschman
With a new afterword by Jeremy
Adelman and a foreword by
Amartya Sen

Albert Hirschman here reconstructs the intellectual climate of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries to show how the pursuit of material interests—so long condemned as the deadly sin of avarice—was assigned the role of containing the unruly and destructive passions of man.

The Unheavenly Chorus

Unequal Political Voice and the Broken
Promise of American Democracy
*Kay Lehman Schlozman, Sidney
Verba & Henry E. Brady*

“Superb.”—John DiIulio, America

“Kay Lehman Schlozman, Sidney Verba, and Henry E. Brady are the nation’s leading analysts of participatory inequality, and The Unheavenly Chorus is their magnum opus—a wide-ranging, heavily statistical analysis of how Americans try to make themselves heard as individuals and through organizations of different kinds.”

—Paul Starr, New Republic

Cloth $35.00 978-0-691-15484-8

Paths Out of Dixie

The Democratization of Authoritarian
Enclaves in America’s Deep South,
1944–1972
Robert Mickey

“This is an impressive account of political change in South Carolina, Mississippi, and Georgia, from one-party authoritarian regimes in the 1890s to democracies in the 1970s. Mickey’s analyses of the constellation of forces in each state are powerful. Paths out of Dixie will be a revelation to political scientists.”

The Spirit of Cities

Why the Identity of a City Matters in a
Global Age
Daniel A. Bell & Avner de-Shalit
With a new preface by the authors

“Daniel Bell and Avner de-Shalit definitely have a new idea, and a good one: that cultivating ‘the spirit of cities’ is the best antidote to global homogenization. They have produced a book that sparkles.”

—Michael Walzer, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton

Paper $19.95 978-0-691-15969-0

The Substance of Representation

Congress, American Political
Development, and Lawmaking
John S. Lapinski

—David Mayhew, author of
Partisan Balance

DAYS OF FIRE

Bush and Cheney in the White House

Peter Baker

"Peter Baker's superb biography of George W. Bush and Dick Cheney will stand as the most complete and balanced discussion of the men and their administration for decades."

—Robert Dallek, author of Nixon and Kissinger: Partners in Power

"It turns out George W. Bush was no puppet, and Dick Cheney no puppet master. Days of Fire takes us inside a relationship that came to define American conflict, peace, and politics. Forget everything else you've read. This excellent book tells us what really happened, from the mouths of the players themselves." —Gwen Ifill, coanchor of PBS Newshour

Doubleday | Cloth | 816 pages | $35.00

MARGARET THATCHER

From Grantham to the Falklands

Charles Moore

"Moore has produced a biography so masterly—so packed with fascinating detail . . . that it comes as close as biography can come to being a work of art. . . . On virtually every page there is a revelation that, had it been known at the time, would have blasted all the rest of the news off the front pages. . . . Moore interviewed 315 people, and was clearly blessed with the knack of getting them to open up. . . . One of the greatest political biographies ever written." —The Daily Mail (UK)

Knopf | Cloth | 896 pages | $35.00

THOMAS JEFFERSON'S QUR'AN

Islam and the Founders

Denise A. Spellberg

"Impressive and timely. . . . An exploration of the extent of the Founders' pluralism, the book is not only a notable addition to our understanding of Jefferson but a significant comment on the world today."

—Bernard Bailyn, Two-time winner of the Pulitzer prize and author of The Barbarous Years

"Ground breaking. . . . As her book explores how tolerant attitudes towards Catholics, Jews, and Muslims led key early American thinkers to consider religious freedom in the widest possible terms, it offers a crucial corrective to those who today resist the nation's inherent blueprint for religious pluralism." —Ali Asani, Harvard University

Knopf | Cloth | 416 pages | $27.95

INFORMING THE NEWS

The Need for Knowledge-Based Journalism

Thomas E. Patterson

"No one has studied the press and the woeful state of public knowledge more carefully than Patterson. In this important new work, he moves from analysis to recommendation, proposing a new model for a press that actually lives up to its democratic potential."

—Clay Shirky, Associate Professor of Journalism, New York University, and author of Cognitive Surplus

Vintage | Paper | 256 pages | $15.00

TEN BILLION

Stephen Emmott

Stephen Emmott, a scientist whose lab is at the forefront of research into complex natural systems provides a snapshot of our planet, and our species, approaching a crisis, and a stark analysis of where this leaves us.

"Powerful. . . . Compelling. . . . The shift in thinking that will be needed if we are to prepare ourselves for living in a different world begins with reading Emmott's indispensable book." —The Guardian (UK)

"A stark, simple and short warning about the coming catastrophe, which [Emmott] feels is inevitable, resulting from human overpopulation and over-exploitation of the world's resources." —Financial Times (UK)

Vintage | Paper | 224 pages | $12.95

FOR DISCRIMINATION

Race, Affirmative Action, and the Law

Randall Kennedy

"This is arguably the most clearheaded defense of affirmative action ever written. Kennedy's incisive analysis includes a compelling critique of a range of arguments by legal experts and social scientists on the pros and cons of affirmative action. In clear prose For Discrimination advances powerful arguments for sensibly defined affirmative action. This thoughtful book is a must-read for all Americans devoted to addressing past and current injustice." —William Julius Wilson, Lewis P. and Linda L. Geyser University Professor, Harvard University

Pantheon | Cloth | 304 pages | $25.95

THE BLOOD TELEGRAM

Nixon, Kissinger, and a Forgotten Genocide

Gary J. Bass

"Gary Bass has excavated a great tragedy, one that's been forgotten by Americans but is seared into the memory of South Asians. His talents as a scholar, writer, and foreign-policy analyst are on full display in this brilliant work of narrative history. Nixon and Kissinger come damningly alive on the pages of a book that shows, like nothing else I've read, the folly that goes by the name of 'realism.'" —George Packer, author of The Unwinding: An Inner History of the New America

Knopf | Cloth | 528 pages | $30.00

LAWRENCE IN ARABIA

War, Deceit, Imperial Folly and the Making of the Modern Middle East

Scott Anderson

"Sophisticated, richly detailed . . . [and] filled with invaluable complex and fine-tuned information. . . . Eminently readable. . . . The book is careful to acknowledge aspects of Lawrence's skill that are not always done justice. Mr. Anderson is especially illuminating about Lawrence's purely political gifts: his way of anticipating the fallout from strategic or military maneuvers, his 'peculiar skill at polite belligerence,' his no-nonsense powers of description. . . . A fascinating book, the best work of military history in recent memory and an illuminating analysis of issues that still loom large today." —The New York Times
