RELIGION AND POLITICS IN POST-SOCIALIST CENTRAL AND SOUTHEASTERN EUROPE

CHALLENGES SINCE 1989

Edited by Sabrina P. Ramet

This volume examines the political engagement of religious associations in the post-socialist countries of Central and Southeastern Europe, with a focus on revelations about the collaboration of clergy with the communist-era secret police, intolerance, and controversies about the inclusion of religious instruction in the schools.

CIVIC AND UNCIVIC VALUES IN MACEDONIA

VALUE TRANSFORMATION, EDUCATION AND MEDIA

Edited by Sabrina P. Ramet, Ola Listhaug, and Albert Simkus

One of the central challenges facing Macedonia, along with other Yugoslav successor states, is to develop civic values and to combat such uncivic values as ethnic intolerance, religious bigotry, and homophobia. This volume brings together specialists in Macedonian affairs to offer insights into the experiences and values of the Macedonians.

SERBIA AND THE SERBS IN WORLD WAR TWO

Edited by Sabrina P. Ramet and Ola Listhaug

A valuable and objective reassessment of the role of Serbia and Serbs in World War Two. Today, Serbian textbooks praise the Chetniks of Draža Mihailović and make excuses for the collaboration of Milan Nedić's regime with the Axis. However, this new evaluation shows the more complex and controversial nature of the political alliances during the period.
