Monthly Public Health Law Webinar Series

January 16, 2014

1-2 pm ET

Every month ASLME and its partners bring together experts in various public health fields to discuss timely and critical topics—including distracted driving, obesity prevention, gun violence and firearms law, health impact assessments, primary care provider roles, and many more. The webinars are free and open to all interested parties. Registration is required.

37th Annual Health Law Professors Conference

June 5-7, 2014

University of California Hastings College of the Law

San Francisco, CA

This conference is intended for professionals who teach law or bioethics in schools of law, medicine, public health, health care administration, pharmacy, nursing, and dentistry. ASLME's Annual Health Law Professors Conference combines presentations by experienced health law teachers with the opportunity for discussion among conference participants. The program is designed to provide participants with updates on issues at the forefront of law and medicine and to provide them with the opportunity to share strategies, ideas, and materials.

2014 Summer Institute for Informed Patient Choice the Legal and Ethical Implications of Keeping Patients in the Dark

June 25-27, 2014

Dartmouth

Hanover, New Hampshire

The 2014 Summer Institute for Informed Patient Choice (SIIPC), will convene patients, physicians, lawyers, nurses, state and federal policymakers, hospital leadership, and ethicists around the individual and systems-level consequences of lack of patient involvement in health care. Aims include facilitating a deeper understanding of the importance of greater transparency in health care; engaging in joint learning about innovative health care delivery methods to promote patient-centered care; and spreading innovative solutions to promote safe, high quality, and transparent patient-centered care through inter-disciplinary collaboration.
