Contents

Note	es on Contributors	page vii
Foreword		xi
Clare	e McGlynn
Acknowledgements		XV
Tabl	le of Cases	xvii
Table of Legislation		xxvii
List of Abbreviations		xxxiii
1	Introduction Alina Tryfonidou and Marja-Liisa Öberg	1
PART I THE FAMILY IN EU LAW: CONCEPT AND CONTEXT
2	What Is a 'Family' in EU Law? Do EU Policies Sufficiently Address Family Diversity and Its Consequences? Alina Tryfonidou	19
3	What Makes the Family Special? David Archard	37
4	Who Counts as a Family Member? On the Importance of 'Doing Family' in EU Law Ségolène Barbou des Places	56
5	One Big Happy 'European Family'? An External Perspective Marja-Liisa Öberg	76

PART II THE EU FAMILY AND RIGHTS

6	The Fundament of the Fundaments? Family Rights and the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights Xavier Groussot, Gunnar Thor Petursson, Alezini Loxa	99
7	The Status of Family Member as a Pre-condition of the Free Movement in the EU Michael Bogdan	118
8	Family Members and the Citizens' Rights Directive: Broadening the Scope of the Principle of Effective Judicial Protection Albertina Albors-Llorens	130
PAR	T III THE EU FAMILY AND FAMILY DIVERSITY
9	All Paths Lead to Equality? Same-Sex Couples and Rainbow Families under European Law Geoffrey Willems	151
10	Surrogacy before European Courts: The Gender of Legal Fictions Alice Margaria	181
PAR	T IV THE EU FAMILY IN INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL CRISES
11	The Abused and Neglected Child in the EU Family: Risk, Borders, and Public Law Child Protection Ruth Lamont	209
12	The EU Family: Surviving Ideological Familism in Times of Illiberalism Nausica Palazzo	227
13	Epilogue to the Family in EU Law: Is There a European Family Law? Jens M. Scherpe	249
Bibliography		263
Inde	2X	281

vi