

BREWER PRIZE CONTEST, 1955

The American Society of Church History announces a prize competition for a book-length manuscript in the field of church history. The award will consist of a subsidy of one thousand dollars to assist the author in the publication of the winning manuscript, which shall be described on its title-page as the "Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History" and shall be published in a manner acceptable to the Society. If competing essays are otherwise of equal quality, preference will be given to those dealing with topics related to the history of Congregationalism. Complete manuscripts in final form, fully annotated, must be in the hands of the Secretary, Professor R. W. Albright, Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Massachusetts, by September 30, 1955. There must be two copies, a typescript and a first carbon, on standard weight paper, double-spaced, with a left-hand margin of at least an inch and one-half.

THE ANABAPTIST VIEW OF THE CHURCH

Dr. Littell's Brewer Prize Essay, published in 1952, is no longer available from the American Society of Church History. The first edition has been exhausted and the work is no longer in print.

BREWER PRIZE CONTEST, 1953

The Council of the American Society of Church History announces that in the 1953 prize contest six contestants submitted essays. No award was made.
