

Journal of Contemporary History

This quarterly review, edited by Walter Laqueur (Director of the Institute of Contemporary History, London) and George Mosse (Professor of History, University of Wisconsin) is the first journal in any language to be entirely devoted to contemporary history. It will deal not only with political history but also with the history of ideas and movements, and of the social forces of our time. The Journal will try to bridge the widening gap between the specialist and the general student of history or indeed the layman.

The first issue presents a symposium on the theme of

INTERNATIONAL FASCISM 1920-45 with articles by

Sir Llewellyn Woodward, The study of contemporary History; Adrian Lyttelton, The 'second wave' of Italian fascism; Professor Robert Soucy, Fascism in France; Professor Hugh Seton-Watson, Fascism right and left; Professor George Mosse, The origins of Fascism; Professor Eugen Weber, The Iron Guard in Rumania; Hugh Thomas, The Spanish Falange; Professor Ludwig Jedlicka, The Austrian Heimwehr; Dr. Gilbert Allardyce, Doriot; Paul Hayes, Quisling; Erwin Oberländer, The Russian Fascist Party.

The second issue will have as its theme the left-wing intelligentsia between the two world wars, and the following number will present a re-assessment of the situation in Europe on the eve of the first world war.

Each issue 15s. Annual subscription 50s.

Published by WEIDENFELD & NICOLSON 20 New Bond Street London W1

Scottish Journal of Political Economy

Vol. III

NOVEMBER 1965

No. 3

The Need for a Regional Policy in a Common Market	Richard Bird
Direct Overseas Investment in Nigeria 1953-65	Ronald S. May
Economics and the Problem of Method	A. S. Skinner
Educational Costs and Local Government Structure in Scotland ..	J. Sleeman
Does Glasgow Overspill Cream Off the More Able? ..	G. Jahoda and M. Green
A Theory of Interest Rates or Asset Prices?	C. V. Brown
The Reference of the Printing Wage Agreement to the Prices and Incomes Board	David Roddy

The Scottish Journal of Political Economy is published in February, June, and November, and is free to members of The Scottish Economic Society. Applications for membership should be made to The Treasurer, Scottish Economic Society, 144 St. Vincent Street, Glasgow, C.2., enclosing the annual subscription of 35/-. The Journal may also be obtained by non-members by ordering through any bookseller or direct from the publisher, Oliver & Boyd, Tweeddale Court, Edinburgh, 1, price 12/6 per single copy.