

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Journal of British Studies

Journal of British Studies and Cambridge University Press are delighted to announce a new publishing partnership

Editors

Brian Cowan, McGill University, Canada
Elizabeth Elbourne, McGill University, Canada

From 2013, Journal of British Studies will be published by Cambridge University Press on behalf of the North American Conference on British Studies (NACBS). Subscriptions, including 2013 renewals, and customer service issues will be managed by Cambridge.

Journal of British Studies's transition to Cambridge brings a wealth of benefits to subscribers, including:

- All institutional subscriptions to Journal of British Studies will include online access to current articles via Cambridge Journals Online (CJO)
- Availability of complete online archive: Volumes 1 through 50, plus the complete archive of Albion, a complementary journal formerly published by the NACBS
- Dedicated customer service and sales teams will help you manage the transition of your subscription
- Clear and familiar lines of communication are available for claims and subscription renewal

If you are a current subscriber, you will receive your regular renewal notice. You may return this notice directly to Cambridge or continue to order through your subscription agent. Please note that the journal will no longer be available as part of the JSTOR Current Scholarship Program. If you would like to subscribe, the contact details for our Customer Services Departments are listed in the column to the right.

CAMBRIDGE JOURNALS

journals.cambridge.org

Cambridge Journals Online is the e-publishing platform for Cambridge's 300+ peer-reviewed academic journals. In addition to those journals owned by the Press itself, we publish on behalf of over 100 learned and professional societies. Many of these titles are the leading journals in their fields, and together, they form one of the most valuable and comprehensive collections of research available today.
