Liberal Criminal Theory

Essays for Andreas von Hirsch
Edited by A P Simester, Antje du Bois-Pedain and Ulfrid Neumann

This book celebrates Andreas (Andrew) von Hirsch's pioneering contributions to liberal criminal theory. The collection brings together a distinguished group of international authors, who pay tribute to von Hirsch by engaging with topics on which he himself has focused. The essays range across sentencing theory, questions of criminalisation, and the relation between criminal law and the authority of the state. Together, they articulate and defend the ideal of a liberal criminal justice system, and present a fitting accolade to Andreas von Hirsch's scholarly life.

A P Simester is Professor of Law at the National University of Singapore. Antje du Bois-Pedain is a University Senior Lecturer at the University of Cambridge. Ulfrid Neumann is Professor at the Goethe-University in Frankfurt.

Special Advisers

Who they are, what they do and why they matter
Ben Yong and Robert Hazell

This book is the most detailed study yet carried out of special advisers. The Constitution Unit's research team, led by Dr Ben Yong and Professor Robert Hazell, assembled a comprehensive database of over 600 special advisers since 1979. They conducted written surveys and interviewed over 100 special advisers, ministers and officials from the past 30 years. They conclude that special advisers are now a permanent and indispensable part of Whitehall, but are still treated as transient and temporary.

Ben Yong is a Lecturer in Public Law at Queen Mary, University of London. Robert Hazell is Professor of Government and the Constitution at University College London.

Aug 2014 302pp Hbk 9781849465601 RSP: £25

Magna Carta Uncovered

Anthony Arlidge and Igor Judge

In this book the authors bring their wide legal experience and forensic skills to uncover the original meaning of the liberties enshrined in Magna Carta, and to trace their development in later centuries up to the drafting of the Constitution of the United States of America. The book tells the enthralling, inspirational story of Magna Carta in a concise and readable fashion and will captivate laymen and lawyers alike.

Anthony Arlidge has been a Queen's Counsel for over 30 years. Igor Judge was a judge for 25 years and retired as Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales in 2013.

Common Law Legal English and Grammar

A Contextual Approach
Alison Riley and Patricia Sours

Lord Denning, an influential but controversial English judge, stated that 'Words are the lawyer's tools of trade'. This course book reflects that conviction as it focuses on words, the language of the law - legal terms, expressions, and grammar - introduced systematically with relevant aspects of the law, and examined in context through analytical reading activities based on original legal texts selected for their interest and importance in different branches of the common law system. This book explores constitutional law, criminal law, tort, and contract; yet includes international legal contexts, with a particular focus on human rights and European law.

Alison Riley is Lecturer in Legal English at the University of Ferrara. Patricia Sours is Lecturer in Legal English at the University of Padua.

Modern Jurisprudence

A Philosophical Guide

Sean Coyle, University of Birmingham

This book provides a concise and accessible guide to modern jurisprudence, offering an examination of the major theories and systematic discussion of themes such as legality and justice. It gives readers a better understanding of the rival viewpoints by exploring the historical developments which give modern thinking its distinctive shape, and placing law in its political context. A key feature of the book is that readers are not simply presented with opposing theories, but are guided through the rival standpoints on the basis of a coherent line of reflection from which an overall sense of the subject can be gained.

Law in Transition

Human Rights, Development and Transitional Justice

Edited by Ruth Buchanan, Osgoode Hall Law School, Toronto and Peer Zumbansen Osgoode Hall Law School, Toronto

"A terrific volume...We all hope law can do better - the essays collected here begin to show us how."

David Kennedy, Harvard Law School

This book includes essays by many of the leading experts writing at the intersection of development, rights and transitional justice studies. Notwithstanding the theoretical and practical challenges presented by the complex interaction of these fields, the premise of the book is that it is only through engagement and dialogue among hitherto distinct fields of scholarship and practice that a better understanding of the institutional and normative issues arising in contemporary law and development and transitional justice contexts will be possible.

An Introduction to Comparative Law Theory and Method

Geoffrey Samuel, Kent Law School and Sciences-Po, Paris

This short book on comparative law theory and method is designed primarily for postgraduate research students whose work involves comparison between legal systems. It is, accordingly, a book on research methods, although it will also be of relevance to all students (undergraduate and postgraduate) taking courses in comparative law and to academics entering the field of comparison. The substance of the book has been developed over many years of teaching general theory of comparative law primarily on the European Academy of Legal Theory programme in Brussels but also on other programmes in French, Belgian and English universities.

The Constitution of Israel

A Contextual Analysis

Suzie Navot, College of Management Academic Studies, Israel

This book presents the main features of the Israeli constitutional system and a topical discussion of Israel's basic laws. It focuses on constitutional history and the peculiar decision to frame a constitution 'by stages'. The book's main themes include: constitutional principles; the legislature and the electoral system; the executive; the protection of fundamental rights and the crucial role of the Supreme Court in Israel's constitutional discourse. It further presents Israel's unique aspects as a Jewish and democratic state, and its ongoing search for the right balance between human rights and national security.

International Review of the Red Cross

Published for the International Committee of the Red Cross

Editor-in-Chief

Vincent Bernard, The International Committee of the Red Cross,

Editor

Mariya Nikolova, The International Committee of the Red Cross,

The International Review of the Red Cross promotes reflection on humanitarian law, policy and action in armed conflict and other situations of collective armed violence. A specialized journal in humanitarian law, it endeavours to promote knowledge, critical analysis and development of the law and to contribute to the prevention of violations of rules protecting fundamental rights and values. The Review offers a forum for discussion about contemporary humanitarian action as well as analysis of the causes and characteristics of conflicts so as to give a clearer insight into the humanitarian problems they generate. Finally, the Review informs its readership on questions pertaining to the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and in particular on the activities and policies of the Red Cross.
