

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

THE objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Studies in English Rhymes from Surrey to Pope

A Chapter in the History of English

By

Henry Cecil Wyld

Author of "The Historical Study of the Mother
Tongue," "A Short History of English," "A
History of Modern Colloquial English," etc.

5s. NET.

This little book is intended primarily for those interested in the study of English literature, of which the problems connected with the Rhymes of the earlier poets form a not uninteresting, if subsidiary, study.
