

Nationalities Papers is the place to turn for cutting edge multidisciplinary work on nationalism, migration, diasporas, and ethnic conflict. We publish high-quality peer-reviewed articles from historians, political scientists, sociologists, anthropologists, and scholars from other fields. Our traditional geographical emphasis has been on Central and Eastern Europe and Eurasia, but we now publish research from around the globe. As the journal of the Association for the Study of Nationalities (ASN), our mission is to bring together scholars worldwide working on nationalism and ethnicity and to feature the best theoretical, empirical, and analytical work in the field. We strongly encourage submissions from women, members of minority and underrepresented groups, and people with disabilities.

On the Cover. Photo taken by Rimantė Jaugaitė: “The picture depicts the exhibition In the footsteps of those who did (not) cross / Koracima onih koji (ni)su prešli at the Srebrenica-Potočari Memorial Centre in Bosnia and Herzegovina. It honors the mainly Bosniak (Bosnian Muslim) men who escaped (or tried to escape) from Srebrenica by walking more than 100 km through the forests, across enemy lines, to the free territory of Tuzla. “Has he crossed over?” became the most frequently asked question at the Dubrava airbase near Tuzla in July 1995, where mothers, grandmothers, and sisters waited for their loved ones. Those who “crossed over” managed to survive the genocide. Unfortunately, hundreds were caught and killed by Bosnian Serb forces on their way to Tuzla. The shoes found on this trail, now known as “The Death March,” have become the main objects of the exhibition. In this picture, taken on 10 August 2022, I captured an immersive angle between the soles of the shoes on the glass and their shadows on the floor.”
