Miniatures of Musical Inspiration in the Collection of the Berlin Museum of Indian Art

by
ERNST and ROSE LEONORE WALDSCHMIDT

(Veröffentlichungen des Museums für Indische Kunst Berlin, Band 2)

Part 1: Rāgamālā-Pictures from the Western Himālaya-Promontory

*1967. 218 p., with 48 ill., 36 one col. and 5 multicol. Plates, 25 × 25 cm.
Cloth est. DM 48,—*

A treatise on a special type of Indian Art: the so-called Rāgamālā, the series of illustrations accompanying melodies and musical sequences. The pictures and illustrations of this work form part of the collections of the Museum für Indische Kunst in Berlin. They mainly originated from the area of the Western Himālaya (Basohli/Kangra), where this type of illustration developed a remarkable individual tradition of its own.

The Journal of Asian Studies

The Journal of Asian Studies, published by the Association for Asian Studies, is the leading American scholarly quarterly covering research in all of the disciplines of the social sciences and humanities on the countries of East, Southeast, and South Asia from Japan to Pakistan. In addition to four regular issues of articles and book reviews, a special fifth number, the annual Bibliography of Asian Studies, contains several thousand titles of books and articles published in Western languages during the preceding year and is an invaluable reference tool for both the specialist and the non-specialist.

The annual subscription rate, including the Bibliography, is $15 (domestic and foreign postage included); the Bibliography separately is $5. Membership in the Association, which includes the Journal, Bibliography, and the Association's Newsletter, is $15 (regular) and $8 (student). Subscriptions and memberships may be entered through the Secretariat of the Association, 48 Lane Hall, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.
