Renaissance Studies

NEW FROM CHICAGO

THE ANONYMOUS RENAISSANCE

Cultures of Discretion
in Tudor-Stuart England

Marcy L. North

“No one who reads this study will ever think about anonymous texts in the period in the same way. No one will believe that anonymity died with print or the Renaissance. And everyone will recognize that anonymous publication was an option, used for various purposes, by authors for print. Part of North’s achievement is to see manuscript and print publication together, and to give us a richer sense of the literary system at work in the Tudor and early Stuart period. This is breakthrough work.”

Illuminating the Renaissance
The Triumph of Flemish Manuscript Painting in Europe
Edited by Thomas Kren and Scot McKendrick

This comprehensive and richly illustrated catalogue focuses on the finest and most ambitiously illuminated books produced in Flanders between 1467 and 1560. As the first monographic treatment of the subject, the book centers on the art and careers of the most important artists, such as Simon Marmion, the Vienna Master of Mary of Burgundy, and Simon Bening. It looks at stylistic trends, the Flemish book trade, the inception of northern humanism, the interchange of artistic ideas between illuminators and painters, and the impact of European court patronage on manuscript production.

The Enterprise of Science in Islam

New Perspectives

edited by Jan P. Hogendijk and Abdelhamid I. Sabra

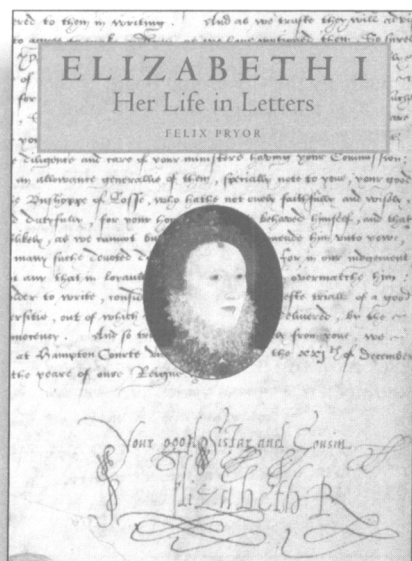

Between A.D. 800 and 1450, the most important centers for the study of what we now call “the exact sciences” — including the mathematical sciences of arithmetic, geometry, and trigonometry and their applications in such fields as astronomy, astrology, geography, cartography, and optics — were not in Europe but in the vast, multinational Islamic world.

Research from the last few decades has profoundly changed our understanding of the Islamic scientific tradition. We now know that it was richer and more profound and had more complex relations to other cultures than we had previously thought. This book offers an overview of this newly energized field of historical investigation.

APPROACHES TO TEACHING

English Renaissance Drama

Karen Bamford and Alexander Leggatt, eds.

"This is an excellent volume which will be highly useful to a well-targeted audience—college and university teachers of English Renaissance Drama exclusive of Shakespeare. Since few pedagogical materials on Shakespeare's contemporaries now exist, this will be a much-appreciated resource for all of us who teach these plays."

—LINDA WOODBRIDGE,
professor of English, Pennsylvania State University

This volume explores the compelling dramatic techniques and rich language found in a wide variety of both well-known and less-familiar Renaissance plays. A series of reading, performance, and research tools are outlined for teachers who wish to encourage students not only to understand the English Renaissance as a unique period of time but also to envision their own world from a fresh perspective.

*Announcing Research Grants for the Year 2004
for Renaissance Society of America Members*

The Renaissance Society of America will award ten grants for a total amount of $20,000 in the year 2004. The grants will be available to applicants in all fields.

There are two series of grants:

(1) RSA RESEARCH GRANTS (9) — The Renaissance Society of America will award up to nine RSA Research Grants in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $3,000, with the average amount expected to be about $2,000, for a total amount of $18,000. Three grants will be awarded in each of the three categories of Non-doctoral Scholar, Younger Scholar, and Senior Scholar. These Research Grants are available to applicants in all disciplines and topics dealing with the Renaissance.

(2) RSA-ISTITUTO NAZIONALE GRANT FOR FLORENCE — The RSA has entered into an agreement with the Istituto Nazionale di Studi sul Rinascimento in Florence to award one research grant for research in Florence. The purpose of the grant is to enable a scholar to use the archival, manuscript, and printed book collections of Florence and/or study the works of art of Florence and the surrounding area. RSA will award the recipient $2,000 toward travel and other costs. The Istituto will provide lodging in a pensione in Florence for up to four weeks and access to its collections. For 2004 the grant will be available to applicants in all three categories.

There will be a single competition for the ten awards. Applicants for the RSA-Istituto award should indicate that they wish to be considered for this award. They will also be considered for RSA Research Grants. No applicant will receive more than one award. Please note that all applicants must be members of the Renaissance Society of America for the required number of years (see below). The following rules apply for all awards.

Research Grants will be awarded in three categories according to the career stage and employment circumstances of the applicants. Applicants will compete for grants within ONE category only.

NON-DOCTORAL: These awards will support doctoral candidates, pre-university teachers, and other applicants lacking doctorates.

YOUNGER SCHOLAR: These awards will support assistant professors; associate professors in the first two years of appointment at that rank; temporary, adjunct, and/or part-time professors; and independent scholars holding the Ph. D. Younger scholars will normally hold the Ph.D.

SENIOR SCHOLAR: These awards will support associate professors with more than two years at that rank, full professors, and retired professors.

The primary purpose of the Research Grants is to enable scholars to study research materials, such as archival documents, manuscripts, rare printed editions, works of art, and major collections of primary and secondary sources essential to the applicant's research but unavailable locally or nearby. A Research Grant will typically enable a scholar to travel to research materials in continental Europe, England, and/or depositories in the United States and Canada.

Research projects in all subjects and language areas within Renaissance Studies are eligible for support. Graduate students must be members of the RSA for at least one year at the time of application. All other applicants must be members of the RSA for at least three years at the time of application.

The Executive Board will appoint a jury drawn from different disciplines within Renaissance Studies. The criteria for judgment will be the scholarly excellence of the project and applicant, and the demonstrated need for access to research materials. The jury reserves the right to award fewer or more grants in one category, but only if there are insufficient applications of merit in another category. The deadline for applications will be 1 January 2004. Awards will be announced as soon as possible after 1 January 2004.

Application for a grant can only be made online at the RSA website:

Renaissance Quarterly Style Sheet

(Revised September 2002)

ARTICLES

1. INITIAL MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION

Three paper copies of the manuscript and the abstract (100 words or less) are required. Please do not send an electronic copy at this point. On a separate sheet, include:

author's name, email address, home and institutional addresses, and phone and fax numbers. The author's name should not appear on the title page or elsewhere in the manuscript/abstract to ensure blind readings from referees.

Referees expect to read manuscripts that conform to the RQ Style Sheet. Manuscripts should be DOUBLE SPACED, including abstract, text, quotations, endnotes (NOT footnotes), and bibliography. A bibliography of printed sources is required. For initial submission, photocopies of illustrations rather than originals are preferable.

2. SUBMISSION OF ACCEPTED MANUSCRIPTS

The Articles Editor will contact authors of accepted manuscripts about content, format, and style issues. After completing revisions, the author sends to the RSA office (The Renaissance Society of America, Inc., The Graduate School and University Center, The City University of New York, 365 Fifth Avenue, Room 5400, New York, NY 10016-4309) one paper copy and one electronic copy as an email attachment (rsa@rsa.org) to serve as the basis for copyediting. Authors lacking email may send a paper copy and an IBM compatible high-density 1.44mb diskette. The diskette should be labeled with the author's name, article title, and the word processing program/version. On the paper copy, the author's name should appear on a separate line after the title, with the author's institutional affiliation or geographic location placed at the end of the text. Illustrations are submitted with the revised manuscript; they should be unmounted glossy prints. Copies of the publishing permissions as well as captions are required. Samples of caption format are in 3.F below.

3. STYLE

RQ uses the Chicago Manual of Style, 14th edition (CMS), with modifications as noted. For example, the plural possessive of names ending in s is always 's (Demosthenes', Erasmus'), a simplification of CMS recommendations. Spelling should be American. Please avoid the use of "I," "me," and "my" in the text of articles. Throughout, avoid gender-specific language and chronologically vague terms like "early modern." As an aid to reader comprehension, provide life dates for historical figures and publication dates for works discussed.

A. NUMBERS AND DATES

The numbers one through ninety-nine are spelled out in the text, except in dates, page numbers, and parts of books: "one chapter deals with" vs. "chapter 1 deals with." Roman numerals should be converted to arabic, except for introductory materials, legal citations, personal titles, or original page numbers. Inclusive page numbers are written as follows: 66-67; 100-09; 115-508.

Dates are written European style: 1 January 1400. Numbers that identify centuries are spelled out. A century name is hyphenated when used as an adjective (sixteenth-century art). Italian century names are capitalized (Quattrocento). Inclusive dates are written as follows: 1560-74.

B. ITALICS

Italics are used for foreign words/phrases not directly quoted and for English words when they are discussed as words. Italics are NOT used for foreign place names (Mont St. Michel), foreign proper names (François), or direct quotations from foreign languages.

C. QUOTATIONS IN GENERAL

Long quotations: More than ten typed lines of prose or three lines of verse are set off in a block and double spaced. As needed, briefly cite within parentheses the source, the page, or line numbers quoted.

Have men beheld the Graces dance,
Or seen the upper orbs to move?
So did these turn, return, advance,
Drawn back by doubt, put on by love.
(265-68)

Short quotations "are placed between quotation marks in the text" (Source, page). Lines of poetry also need slashes (/) between lines and double slashes (//) between stanzas.

Ellipsis: use within the body of a quote to indicate omission (. . . or if the omission includes a period). Avoid beginning and closing ellipsis.

D. QUOTATIONS FROM FOREIGN LANGUAGES

A word or short passage is immediately followed by a translation in parentheses the first time it appears; for example, coram papa (in the presence of the pope), or “fare quattro fiche” (to make four figs). Do not italicize or place quotation marks around the translation.

Longer passages are translated in the text and the original given in the notes. Very long passages will be converted to appendices. In the notes, quotations in non-Roman alphabets should not be transliterated. Latin abbreviations and contractions should be spelled out and modern conventions followed for u/v, w/vv, etc. Use modern punctuation and capitalize proper names.

E. CITATIONS

Acknowledgments are indicated by an asterisk after the article’s title. Double-spaced numbered endnotes should start in the text. As an alternative to endnotes, short in-text citations may be used (Jones, 27; Jones, 1969, 27; or Jones, 1969b, 27, as needed).

Examples of endnotes:

1. King, 98-144.
2. Ibid., 79. (same publication cited immediately above, different page)
3. R.L. Stevenson, 81. (more than one Stevenson in the bibliography)
4. Kristeller, 2:73. (a multi-volume work)
5. Kristeller, 1952, 37. (more than one work by the author cited in the article)
6. Monfasani, 1980a, 51. (more than one work published the same year)

To clarify a complex work, explain its divisions the first time it is cited. For works divided into sections, separate the elements by periods. For example, 3.3.12-24 could indicate act 3, scene 3, lines 12-24; or book 3, canto 3, lines 12-24. A multi-volume work needs a colon; for example, 1:2.7, 101-02, could indicate volume 1, book 2, chapter 7, pages 101-92. Both “verso” and “recto” are used when printed works and manuscripts are so numbered; for example: 18v; 18r-v; 18r-19v; or, fol. 18v, etc.

Abbreviate as follows: chap. for chapter; bk. for book; pt. for part; vol. for volume; n., nn., for note, notes. Do not use: idem, op. cit., loc. cit., cf., f. and ff.; instead, supply pages or other information as needed.

F. CAPTIONS

Examples of caption format:

G. BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography includes all printed works and manuscripts cited in the article organized alphabetically in a single list. Authors making substantial use of manuscripts may list them separately; see, for example, Carlson, RQ 55:3, 901-03. While archival records are not normally included in a bibliography, the first note in the text to an archival document can list frequently cited repositories, series, and their abbreviations. In addition to the examples below, authors should consult CMS 16.1-29, 637-99. RQ differs in omitting the names of publishers, except when authors prefer to include them for early imprints. Complex figures with a distinct bibliographic tradition, such as Erasmus, may also merit presentation that varies from CMS.

List multiple works by an author chronologically. The second and subsequent works begin with a line five spaces long followed by a period. Clarify identical American place names by using US postal style for states: Durham, NC or NH. Clarify identical European/American place names: Cambridge (England, no identifying location) but Cambridge, MA, for the US city. Give foreign place names in English; Venice, not Venezia. List no more than two places of publication.

Examples of bibliographic entries:

Basic author entry; note that the second author's name is not inverted.

Macmillian, Scott and Sally-Beth Maclean. 1998. The Queen's Men and their Plays. Cambridge and New York.

Basic title entry; note that Ed. (or Trans. or Comp.) follows a period, begins with a capital.

Acts of the Privy Council. 1890-1907. Ed. J. R. Dasent. 32 vols. London.

Basic editor entry: note that the editors' contribution is substantial.

De Bujanda, J. M. et al., eds. 1984. Index de l'inquisition espagnole 1551, 1554, 1559. In Index des livres interdits, 6. Geneva.

Multi-author work with editor, often a collection of related articles; note that entry is by title.

Preachers of the Italian Ghetto. 1992. Ed. David B. Ruderman. Berkeley.

A single selection from an edited book.

Owens, Jesse Ann. 1995. "Was there a Renaissance in Music?" in Language and Images of Renaissance Italy, ed. Alison Brown, 111-26. Oxford.

Multiple selections from an edited book. The edited book gets its own entry; each selection's author, title, and pagination is given in full, but the monographic information is brief. The examples are presented alphabetically, as they would appear in a bibliography.

Davis, Robert C. 1998. "The Geography of Gender in the Renaissance." In Gender and Society, 19-38.

Gender and Society in Renaissance Italy. 1998. Ed. Judith C. Brown and Robert C. Davis. London and New York.

Kuehn, Thomas. 1998. "Person and Gender in the Laws." In Gender and Society, 87-106.

Edition/series.

Shakespeare, William. 2000. The Merry Wives of Windsor. Ed. Giorgio Melchiori. (The Arden Shakespeare, 3rd ser.) Walton-on-Thames.

Reprint/facsimile.

Tomasini, Jacopo Filippo. 1986. Gymnasium Patavinum. 1654. Reprint, Sala Bolognese.

Multi-volume work.

Brecht, Martin. 1985-93. Martin Luther. Trans. James L. Schaaf. 3 vols. Philadelphia (vol. 1) and Minneapolis (vols. 2, 3).

Journal article.

Steinberg, Leo. 1973. "Leonardo's Last Supper." Art Quarterly 36:297-410.

Garin, Eugenio. 1967. "Dante nel Rinascimento." Rinascimento 7. n.s.:3-28.

Book review.

Prescott, Anne Lake. 1986. Rev. of Vulgar Rabelais by Carol Clark and Rabelais in Glasgow, ed. James A. Coleman and Christine M. Schollen-Jimack. Renaissance Quarterly 39:552-55.

REVIEWS

STYLE RULES FOR REVIEWS

In general, reviewers should follow the style guide for articles. At the top of the review, the reviewer should type the bibliographical information double-spaced as follows:

William Shakespeare. The Merry Wives of Windsor.
Ed. David Crane. (The New Cambridge Shakespeare.) Cambridge and
New York: Cambridge University Press, 1997. xi + 163 pp. + 2 color pls.
$39.95 (cl), $10.95 (pbk). ISBN: 0-521-22155-2 (cl), 0-521-29370-7
(pbk).

Italics are preferable to underlining.

Quotations within the text from the book under review should be followed by a page number in parentheses: "The history of the text" (132). References to other works should be made by parenthetical citations: "The history of the text" (Thomas Writer, The Book Cited [1997]). Renaissance Quarterly does not print footnotes to reviews.

At the end of the review, the reviewer's name and institution should appear as follows:

Joan Doe
University of Nowhere

Reviewers should send their reviews as email attachments to rsa@rsa.org. If that option is not available, a reviewer may send a paper copy with an IBM compatible high-density 1.44mb diskette. The diskette should be labeled with the reviewer's name, book title, word processing program (including version), and date.

STYLE RULES FOR REVIEW ESSAYS

A review essay should be titled as if it were an article. The title should then be followed by the bibliographical information for the books under review, using the citation system for reviews. The books should be listed in alphabetical order by author, not in the order in which books are dealt with in the review. Quotations should be cited using in-text parenthetical style. Endnotes are not encouraged, but if they are necessary, the guidelines under the style guide for articles should be used, except that they should contain full bibliographical information. We do not print bibliographies in review essays.
