

An interdisciplinary approach to understanding the origins and role of Islam in constitutions of Muslim-majority states. It explains how and why Islam became constitutionally entrenched in some states and expands on the relationship between colonialism, constitutional Islam, secularism and human rights.

“ Democracy under God presents an original and illuminating perspective on Islamic constitutionalism, which is supported by multi-disciplinary perspectives and a rich array of historical and contemporary empirical cases ranging from the Ottoman Empire to West Africa and Pakistan. This is a provocative and insightful book that will be of interest to a wide audience. ”

COLLEGE THEOLOGY SOCIETY

The College Theology Society is a professional organization of college and university professors of religion in the United States and Canada.

The purpose of the College Theology Society is to improve the quality of the teaching of religion: by stimulating and sharing scholarly research; by developing programs of theology and religious studies which meet student needs and interests; and by exploring, evaluating, and encouraging effective ways of teaching which are interdisciplinary and ecumenical.

Annual membership dues in the Society are $75.00 (Full Professional), $60.00 (Associate), and $30.00 (Graduate Student). Membership in the Society includes a subscription to Horizons. Contact Paul Schutz, Department of Religious Studies, Santa Clara University. Email: pjschutz@scu.edu or visit collegetheology.org.

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Manuscript submissions to the journal should be between 25 and 30 pages (about 10,000 words), not including notes. On rare occasions, the editors will give consideration to a lengthier submission of exceptional quality. The text and bibliographic documentation of the manuscript must conform to the Chicago Manual of Style (CMOS), 17th edition. We require that authors use endnotes rather than footnotes and that they double-space the entire manuscript.

Manuscripts must have a separate title page that includes the author's name, affiliation, e-mail address, postal address, an abstract of no more than 150 words, up to 8 keywords, and an author vita of no more than 50 words. Please declare the existence or absence of competing interests on the title page. The author's name should appear nowhere else in the manuscript. All references to the author's work in the text or notes should be in the third person. Authors must state clearly that the article has not been previously published either in the same, abridged, or expanded form elsewhere, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere.

Send your manuscript prepared in Microsoft Word to the journal's e-mail address horizons@collegetheology.org, and to the managing editor, mary.pappalardo@villanova.edu. Postal mail can be sent to:

The Editor, Horizons, St. Mary's Hall, Villanova University, 800 Lancaster Avenue, Villanova, PA 19085.
