The Annual Survey of Commonwealth Law

Editor: H. W. R. Wade, Q.C., M.A., LL.D., D.C.L., of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law and Honorary Bencher, Professor of Law in the University of Oxford.
Assistant Editor: Harold L. Cryer, M.V.O., B.A., Barrister-at-Law, Captain Royal Navy (Retired), formerly Chief Naval Judge-Advocate.

This important series is designed to provide an easily accessible working body of Commonwealth comparative law. Prepared under the auspices of the British Institute of International and Comparative Law and the Faculty of Law in the University of Oxford, it shows the great extent to which the law of other countries can throw light on local problems.

"... has established itself as a leading publication in the Common Law world, containing a magnificent collection of readable, comprehensive, practical and scholarly essays by an outstanding group of lawyers."—New Law Journal.

"... a work of great utility and of considerable scholarship."

—Solicitors' Journal.

"... a book for all lawyers whose interests lead them to maintain a current acquaintance with legal developments elsewhere in the commonwealth."

—Australian Law Journal.

The impressive list of contributors to this comprehensive annual includes the Editor, H. W. R. Wade, P. S. Atiyah and S. A. de Smith. The range of subject matter is very wide, including every aspect of law from fundamental rights and civil liberties to maritime and family law. Chapters are arranged under subject headings and provide in narrative form a critical commentary on the statutes, cases and legal literature of the various territories. There are detailed tables of cases and statutes and a very full index.

Since the decisions of Commonwealth courts are gaining more and more importance—and are frequently cited in the United Kingdom—this new Survey is a vital acquisition for all who wish to keep abreast of the times.

The Law and Practice of Nigerian Wills Probate and Succession

BRIAN W. HARVEY, M.A., LL.B. (Cantab.), A.T.I.C.
Solicitor (England); formerly Senior Lecturer at the Nigerian Law School, Lagos

With a Foreword by The Honourable Mr. Justice G. B. A. Coker
Justice, Supreme Court of Nigeria

The purpose of this work is not only to provide a freshly researched account of the various laws applicable in Nigeria but also to place in the hands of students for the legal professional examinations, and newly qualified lawyers, a helpful handbook on the actual practice and procedure of the drafting, office and court work involved.

This book provides, then, not only a reliable restatement and explanation of the relevant law but also forms a clear introductory manual to legal practice in probate and succession. The two Appendices contain a comprehensive selection of forms and precedents for use in the practitioners office and in connection with High Court proceedings.

Probate and Administration in Kenya

H. E. AMROLIA
formerly of the Probate and Divorce Registry, Supreme Court of Kenya

With a Foreword by The Honourable Mr. Justice B. R. Miles
Puisne Judge, High Court of Kenya

This is a comprehensive textbook and guide to the law and procedure of probate and administration of estates in Kenya. An analysis and explanation of the applied Indian Succession Act 1865 and the Indian Probate and Administration Act 1881, forms the basis of this work which throughout aims to provide helpful advice and authority on practical problems. All other relevant statute law is fully considered, including the Commonwealth Probate Act, the Public Trustee Act and the African Wills Act. Developments arising from all relevant cases are explained and incorporated. This work represents therefore, not only a thoroughly useful handbook on daily practice in Kenya but also a study of the relevant Indian legislation.
