

Law & Social Inquiry

Journal of the American Bar Foundation

Formerly the American Bar Foundation Research Journal

Volume 14, Number 3, Summer 1989

Law & Social Inquiry

Journal of the American Bar Foundation

Editor	Terence C. Halliday
Review Editor	Howard S. Erlanger
Associate Editors	John J. Donohue, Susan P. Shapiro

Journal Manager	John Atkinson
------------------------	----------------------

Editorial Board

Richard L. Abel, Professor of Law, University of California, Los Angeles
Morris Arnold, U.S. District Judge for the Western District of Arkansas
Donald Black, Professor of Sociology, University of Virginia
Erhard Blankenburg, Professor of Sociology of Law, Free University of Amsterdam
Jane F. Collier, Professor of Anthropology, Stanford University
John L. Comaroff, Professor of Sociology and Anthropology, University of Chicago
Jacques Commaille, Directeur, Centre de Recherche Interdisciplinaire de Vaucresson
Phoebe C. Ellsworth, Professor of Psychology, University of Michigan
William M. Evan, Professor of Sociology, University of Pennsylvania
Eliot L. Freidson, Professor of Sociology, New York University
Lawrence M. Friedman, Professor of Law, Stanford University
Mary Ann Glendon, Professor of Law, Harvard University
Earl Johnson, Jr., Associate Justice, California State Court of Appeal
Stanley N. Katz, President, American Council of Learned Societies
Felice J. Levine, Director, Law and Social Sciences Program, National Science Foundation
Robert J. Levy, Professor of Law, University of Minnesota
Richard S. Markovits, Professor of Law, University of Texas
Doreen McBarnet, Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, Wolfson College, Oxford
Carrie J. Menkel-Meadow, Professor of Law, University of California, Los Angeles
Laura Nader, Professor of Anthropology, University of California-Berkeley
Judith Resnik, Professor of Law, University of Southern California
Carol M. Rose, Professor of Law, Northwestern University
Martin M. Shapiro, Professor of Law, University of California-Berkeley
David Sugarman, School of Law, Middlesex Polytechnic
David M. Trubek, Professor of Law, University of Wisconsin
Barbara Yngvesson, Professor of Anthropology, Hampshire College
Michael Zander, Dean, Department of Law, London School of Economics

Law & Social Inquiry

Journal of the American Bar Foundation

Volume 14, Number 3, Summer 1989

ARTICLES

Why Are There So Many Lawyers? Perspectives on a Turbulent Market 431

Richard H. Sander and E. Douglass Williams

When Do We Think About Detection? Structural Opportunity and Taxpaying Behavior 481

Loretta J. Stalans, Kent W. Smith, and Karyl A. Kinsey

REVIEW ESSAYS

Outside, Inside: Jewish Justices in the Homeless Society 507

Marc Galanter

On the Scale of Imprisonment: Downes's Contrasts in Tolerance 527

Franklin E. Zimring and Gordon Hawkins

Character as Argument 539

Mark Tushnet

Alienation or Empowerment? Law and Strategies for Social Change 551

Nicholas González Yuen

Communists and Their Criminal Law Revisited 581

Stanisław Pomorski

The Corrosive Constitutionalism of Edward S. Corwin 603

Gary L. McDowell

BOOK REVIEW

Prison Reform: Failure and Irony 615

Lawrence M. Friedman

BOOK NOTES 621

Publication Policy

The American Bar Foundation is an independent research institute committed to socio-legal research. Consistent with its mandate to create and disseminate knowledge about law, the legal profession, and legal institutions, Law and Social Inquiry: Journal of the American Bar Foundation invites the submission of articles that make original contributions to understanding of socio-legal processes. Law and Social Inquiry publishes both empirical and theoretical studies from a variety of disciplinary perspectives. The analyses, conclusions, and opinions are those of the authors alone.

Manuscript Evaluation: Law and Social Inquiry is a refereed journal. Manuscripts that the Editors deem appropriate for the journal are evaluated by two or more reviewers with expertise in the relevant subject matter and methodology. Manuscripts produced by ABF research fellows are evaluated by the same process as outside manuscripts and are not accorded priority in publication.

Submission of Manuscripts: Manuscripts submitted to Law and Social Inquiry should be typed double-spaced and be accompanied by an abstract of not more than 150 words. The review process is anonymous; all identifying information should appear only on a separate cover sheet and not in the body of the manuscript.

Law and Social Inquiry does not accept multiply submitted articles. The Editors endeavor to make decisions promptly, usually about two months after submission.

Editing of Manuscripts: All manuscripts accepted for publication are edited for style by professional copyeditors in consultation with the author. Copyeditors do not check citations. Authors see both edited manuscripts and proofs.

Reprints to Authors: Without charge, we provide authors with 25 reprints of their article or essay or of the Review Symposium in which the essay appears. Additional reprints may be ordered at author's expense. Article authors receive 3 copies of the issue in which their contribution appears; review essay and book review authors receive 1 copy.

Republication Rights: The Foundation normally permits authors to republish or use their manuscripts after publication, but Law and Social Inquiry has the right to first publication of edited manuscripts. The journal retains the right to republish manuscripts as reprints or as part of any reproduction of the issue or volume in which they appear, by any means, including without limit electronic means or microfilm.

Comments and Responses: Comments on or responses to articles or review essays in the form of brief, scholarly statements will be published at the discretion of the Editors or Review Section Editor.

Send article manuscripts to:
Terence C. Halliday
Editor
Law and Social Inquiry
American Bar Foundation
750 N. Lake Shore Drive
Chicago, IL 60611
(312) 988-6500

Send inquiries regarding review essays to:
Howard S. Erlanger
Review Editor
Law and Social Inquiry
University of Wisconsin Law
School
Madison, WI 53706
(608) 262-2240

Law and Social Inquiry: Journal of the American Bar Foundation is published quarterly.

Subscription rates:	1 Year	2 Years	3 Years
Individual rate	$30.00	$54.00	$76.00
Academic	$25.00	$47.00	$64.00
Institutions (including libraries)	$47.00	$87.00	$117.00

Overseas subscribers add $6.00 per year.

Reprints: $3.50 each, subject to availability (quantity discounts applicable for orders of 10 or more).

Single copies: $10.00; available from Fred B. Rothman & Company, 10368 West Centennial Road, Littleton, Colorado 80123. (303) 979-5657

© 1989 American Bar Foundation.

Law and Social Inquiry: Journal of the American Bar Foundation (ISSN: 0897-6546) is published quarterly—winter, spring, summer, and fall—for $30.00 per year, by American Bar Foundation, 750 N. Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, IL 60611. Second-class postage paid at Chicago, IL. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to: Law and Social Inquiry: Journal of the American Bar Foundation, 750 N. Lake Shore Dr., Chicago, IL 60611.