CANCER

Edited by Ronald W. Raven, O.B.E.(Mil.), T.D., F.R.C.S.

In Six volumes and Index volume. Profusely illustrated. 85s. net per volume, carriage and packing extra.

The first multi-volume of its kind or scope, CANCER covers an immense range, taking in research into causation, pathology, geography, occupation, cancer education, detection, clinical aspects, radiotherapy, chemotherapy and public health. It should be used by all medical men engaged in the struggle against the disease.

THE PRINCIPLES AND ART OF PLASTIC SURGERY

By Sir Harold Gillies, C.B.E., F.R.C.S., and D. Ralph Millard, Jr., M.D. In Two volumes. £12 10s. net per set, carriage and packing 4s. extra. 2,472 illustrations, 122 in colour.

"Every chapter contains a wealth of surgical information, practical procedures, warnings, but always encouragement and stimulation. New principles, as expected, still abound and humour is never absent. The illustrations are excellent and arranged with ingenuity and to maximum advantage. . . It is fitting that Sir Harold, acknowledged as the father of modern plastic surgery, should present these memorable volumes for the benefit and example of those to follow."

SIDELIGHTS ON THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE

Edited by Sir Zachary Cope, B.A., M.D., M.S., F.R.C.S. Pp. x+241+Index. Illustrated 45s., by post 1s. 3d. extra.

These articles, all of high literary merit, have been selected to illuminate certain aspects of the development of medicine. The authors are men of eminence in the profession and their papers will be an important addition to medical literature.

PRINCIPLES OF GYNAECOLOGY

By T. N. A. Jeffcoate, M.D., F.R.C.S.(Edin), F.R.C.O.G., Professor of Obstetrics and Gynaecology in the University of Liverpool. Pp. viii+669+Index. 436 illustrations, 12 colour plates. 75s. net, by post 2s. 3d. extra.

This is primarily a practical work and the author, a well-known teacher, has drawn on his vast experience to stress and clarify particularly those matters which, he admits himself, are difficult to master. With this eminently personal approach and the author's complete understanding of the reader's problems and its direct and fluent style, the book will carry the advanced student through and beyond the qualifying examinations and become invaluable to the qualified doctor in general practice.

BURNS—Pathology and Therapeutic Applications

By Simon Sevitt, M.D., M.Sc., M.A., F.R.C.P.I., D.P.H., Consultant Pathologist to the Birmingham Accident Hospital and M.R.C. Burns Research Unit. Pp. viii+336+Index. 85 illustrations. 37s. 6d. net, by post 2s. extra.

This book, the first to be devoted to the pathology of burns, interprets the significance of pathological findings and inter-relates pathology, clinical picture and treatment, not only in thermal burns, but in electrical, chemical and radiation burns. Its essentially modern and practical approach makes the work of immense value to all medical men concerned with the burned patient; including surgeons and pathologists, and also to postgraduate students of surgery, pathology and medicine.

MEDICAL NEGLIGENCE being the Law of Negligence in Relation to the Medical Profession and Hospitals

By The Right Hon. Lord Nathan, P.C., a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, Chairman of the Board of Governors of Westminster Hospital, with the collaboration of Anthony R. Barrowclough, B.A., of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law. 35s. net, by post 1s. 3d. extra. An objective and comprehensive statement of the law relating to the liability of medical practitioners and medical institutions for professional negligence, providing in an eminently readable form guidance for hospital administrators and members of the medical and nursing profession on the nature of their professional responsibilities and the risks which affect them in the course of their work.
