Aristotle And His Medieval Interpreters

Canadian Journal of Philosophy
Supplementary Volume 17
edited by Richard Bosley and Martin Tweedale

Aristotle's works are a storehouse of theories, concepts, ideas and puzzles which were to dominate thought for the intellectual cultures of the Greek Near East, the Latin West, and Arabic Islam for two millennia. In this volume, seven well-known scholars (Gareth Matthews, Deborah Black, E.J. Ashworth, Joseph Owens, Eleonore Stump, Norman Kretzman and Marilyn Adams) scrutinize this peripatetic legacy in original essays.

ALETHEIA

AN INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF PHILOSOPHY

VOLUME V

TRUTH AND VALUE: THE PHILOSOPHY OF DIETRICH VON HILDEBRAND

Bern, Frankfurt/M., New York, Paris, 1992. 450 pp.
ISBN 3-261-04451-9 pb. sFr. 98.- / $ 67.80

Edmund Husserl has said of Hildebrand's doctoral thesis which appeared in the Jahrbuch für Philosophie und phänomenologische Forschung as «Die Idee der sittlichen Handlung:» «I can only propose for this important work the predicate opus eximium (of the highest excellence).»

This volume comprises the most complete secondary resource on the thought of Dietrich von Hildebrand, the background of his phenomenological realism, and its relation to the thought of other important thinkers such as Kant, Marcel, St. Thomas, and Nietzsche.

The issue contains a previously unpublished work by Edmund Husserl, and a commentary by Karl Schuhmann concerning the relation between Husserl and Hildebrand. Also included, and of interest to a variety of readers, is a historical treatise on the fight which Hildebrand led against the Nazi party, a fight which forced him into exile and nearly cost him his life. The most complete bibliography of Hildebrand's writings is included as a tool to further research in the philosophy of Hildebrand.

When one considers the quality, breadth, and sheer quantity of Hildebrand's writings, it is astonishing that his writings have received so little attention. It is hoped that this issue will further the thought of this thinker who was so highly esteemed by the like of Edmund Husserl, Max Scheler, Adolf Reinach and Gabriel Marcel.

Are you concerned about today's social and political problems?

Then SOCIETY is for you!

Since 1963, SOCIETY has been at the center of debate on the major social and political issues of our day. Operating out of the deep conviction that real-world problems matter, SOCIETY responds to the changing needs and concerns of a sophisticated readership that demands fearless, penetrating analysis of the social attitudes and political beliefs underlying the headlines.

Six times a year, SOCIETY brings you clear thinking and perceptive analysis, presented in readable articles and special features by leading social scientists. It is the publication of choice for those who want to look beyond their personal and professional worlds into a larger arena where key thinkers address fundamental issues that concern us all.

Philosophy Now - It Makes You Think!

Information for Authors

Prospective authors should send their contributions, typed and double-spaced on quarto or A4 paper, to the Editor, Mr Renford Bambrough, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0AG. They should retain a second copy for the purpose of checking proofs. Articles submitted should conform to Hart's Rules for Compositors and Readers (Oxford University Press, 1967). The Editor may alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to the stylistic and bibliographical conventions of the journal. Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. The titles of books and journals should be underlined (i.e. to be printed in italics), as should foreign words. Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks.

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes and should be typed (double-spacing) on a separate sheet, numbered consecutively. They should be referred to in the text by superscripts. Citations should be as follows:

¹H. B. Acton, The Philosophy of Punishment (London: Macmillan, 1969), 192–198.

²R. S. Downie and Elizabeth Telfer, 'Autonomy', Philosophy 46, No. 178 (October 1971), 295.

³Op. cit. note 1, 101–112.

⁴W. C. Wimsatt, 'Some Problems with the Concept of Feedback', Boston Studies in the Philosophy of Science, VIII, R. C. Buck and R. S. Cohen (eds.) (Dordrecht: D. Reidel, 1971), 242.

The return of contributions cannot be guaranteed unless they are accompanied by stamps, or in the case of contributions from abroad, by international coupons, to cover postage. A self-addressed envelope should also be enclosed.

Only corrections of printer's errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to Mr Bambrough as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive twenty-five offprints free of charge. Additional offprints can be ordered when proofs are returned by arrangement with the Institute.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Authors' corrected proofs should be sent to Mr Bambrough at St John's College, Cambridge. All other correspondence should be addressed to the Institute and not to any address in Cambridge.
