

Henry V

CHRISTOPHER
ALLMAND

This new study, the first full scholarly biography of Henry V taking into account a great deal of recent scholarship, shows his reign in the broad European context of his day. Allmand offers far more than a biography of a king. His book is also a rich work of cultural history.

English Monarchs

$35.00 cloth, illustrated

Roman Britain

T. W. POTTER and
CATHERINE JOHNS

Relying on the most recent archaeological evidence as well as on ancient artifacts, Potter and Johns assess the impact of the Roman invasion and provide a complete picture of Roman Britain.

Exploring the Roman World
$35.00 cloth,

color & b/w illustrations

Victorian Cities

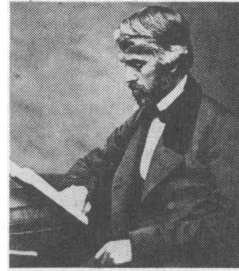

ASA BRIGGS

Foreword by Andrew and Lynn Hollen Lees

This study in urban history examines the 19th-century history of four cities in England.

"[Briggs] has a profound sense of the difficulties that accompanied urbanization." — New York Times Book Review

Classics in Urban History
$15.00 paper, illustrated

Thomas Carlyle

A Biography
FRED KAPLAN

New in paper—

"Kaplan illumines the Victorian era by bringing us into what we feel is the very presence of one of its idols."

—The New Yorker

"[Carlyle] is alive and well (except for occasional stomach trouble), and living in Mr. Kaplan's biography." —Times Literary Supplement

$17.00 paper, illustrated

At bookstores or order

1-800-822-6657.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

Berkeley Los Angeles New York London

New from Cambridge

A Concise History of Britain, 1707–1975

W. A. Speck

From the union with Scotland in 1707 to its entry into the European Economic Community in 1975, W. A. Speck provides a concise historical and political look at Britain. Fully illustrated and including a guide to further reading, this volume is sure to be essential to students, historians and all those interested in Britain.

36400-0 Hardcover $39.95

36702-6 Paper $12.95

A Gentry Community

Leicestershire in the Fifteenth Century, c. 1422–1485

Eric Acheson

This book examines the fifteenth-century Leicestershire gentry under five broad headings: as landholders, as members of a social community based on the county, as participants in and leaders of the government of the shire, as members of the wider family unit and as individuals.

40533-5 Hardcover $59.95

Studies in Tudor and Stuart Politics and Government

Volume 4: Papers and Reviews, 1983–1990

G. R. Elton

This volume includes a group of pieces on sixteenth-century government and politics, as well as a second group, "on Historians", which reprints on appraisal of Sir Herbert Butterfield and three substantial reviews on historiographical problems.

41832-1 Hardcover $54.95

Announcing a new series...

British Lives

Maurice Cowling and John Vincent, Series Editors

British Lives is a new series of short biographical studies which will address the lives of major figures from the early medieval period to modern times. A major aim of this series will be to seek out and scrutinise figures whose current interpretation has become stale or conventional and to establish a lively interaction between author and subject.

Pitt the Elder

Jeremy Black

An original account of the statesman, William Pitt the Elder, First Earl of Chatham (1700–1778), who directed British policy in the Seven Years War, the crucial struggle that gave Canada to Britain.

39116-4 Hardcover $49.95

39806-1 Paper $14.95

Marlborough

J. R. Jones

This new study examines the opportunistic ways in which John Churchill, the first Duke of Marlborough, rose from obscurity and poverty to wealth and greatness, his decisive role in the Revolution of 1688 as well as his dramatic fall.

37571-1 Hardcover $49.95

37593-2 Paper $14.95

William Temple

John Kent

The outstanding British religious leader of this century (1881–1944) became Archbishop of Canterbury in 1942. His career as the last great defender of the welfare-oriented Church of England is all the more significant at a time when the British Welfare State's survival is in jeopardy.

37484-7 Hardcover $44.95

37630-0 Paper $14.95

New from Cambridge

Stewards, Lords and People

The Estate Steward and His World in Later Stuart England

D. R. Hainsworth

This book opens a window on English society under the later Stuarts by showing how that society operated through a thorough examination of the role of the estate steward.

Cambridge Studies in Early Modern British History

36489-2 Hardcover $59.95

Criminal Law and Colonial Subject

New South Wales 1810–1830

Paula Jane Byrne

This book explores the relationship of a colonial people with English law. Paula Jane Byrne traces the boundaries among property, sexuality and violence, drawing from court records, dispositions and proceedings and reconstructs the legal process with great detail and richness.

40379-0 Hardcover $65.00

The Estates of the English Crown, 1558–1640

R. W. Hoyle, Editor

This collection of essays is the first comprehensive account of the estates of the English kings and queens and their management.

Contributors: Madeleine Gray, Graham Haslam, R. W. Hoyle, Peter Large, Joan Thirsk, David Thomas

36082-X Hardcover $79.95

Road Transport Before the Railways

Russell's London Flying Waggon

Dorian Gerhold

This book offers the fullest account yet written of the road haulage industry in England from the seventeenth century until the coming of the railways by using the letters of one of the largest haulage firms to operate between the West Country and London.

41950-6 Hardcover $69.95

Mr. Bligh's Bad Language

Passion, Power, and Theater on the Bounty

Greg Dening

"Mutiny on the Bounty" summons to the popular mind images of violence and power on the high seas. Dening restores a sense of perspective in this fascinating study of the Bounty through images of space, language, and ceremony in Britain's Royal Navy of the late 18th century.... Dening provides excellent details of the daily life of seamen and officers from the perspectives of history and anthropology." Library Journal

38370-6 Hardcover $34.95

Landscape Imagery and Urban Culture in Early Nineteenth-Century Britain

Andrew Hemingway

Unlike most studies of British Romantic landscape painting, this book focuses neither on individual artists nor on the relationship between landscape painting and rural life. Instead it treats such painting as an essentially urban phenomenon and sets it in the context of the London exhibition scene.

39118-0 Hardcover $95.00

Politics in Place

Social Power Relations in an Australian Country Town

Ian Gray

Ian Gray spent a year in a typical medium-sized agricultural town in western New South Wales, where he joined local community groups and historical societies, and attended weekly council meetings. The community study that emerged is Politics in Place, a discussion of the maintenance of a local political power structure.

40426-6 Hardcover $49.95

New from Cambridge

Now in paperback...

English Portrait Miniatures

Revised Edition

Graham Reynolds

"...a most judicious assessment of prevalent opinion in the light of a lifetime's experience."

—The Times Library Supplement

33920-0 Paper $29.95

London in the Age of Industrialisation

Entrepreneurs, Labour Force and Living Conditions 1700–1850

L. D. Schwarz

Dr. Schwarz offers a full-length analysis of the working population of London and the effects of the industrial revolution on it, as well as a look at changes to the economy and the social structure of the city.

40365-0 Hardcover $54.95

The English Rural Community

Image and Analysis

Brian Short, Editor

An inter-disciplinary perspective on the realities that lie behind the myths and images of rural England is offered by examining such central issues as development, migration, labor patterns, religious practice and the rural labor force.

Contributors: Brian Short, Joan Thirsk, Malcolm Kitch, Alun Howkins, John Barrell, Stuart Laing, John Lowerson, Peter Ambrose, Susan Wright

40537-8 Hardcover $59.95

40567-X Paper $22.95

Available in bookstores or from

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

40 W. 20th St., N.Y., NY 10011-4211

Call toll-free 800-872-7423

MasterCard/VISA accepted.

Prices subject to change.

The Wheelwright's Shop

George Sturt

Foreword by E. P. Thompson

First published in 1923, a unique glimpse into the working lives of craftsmen in a world since banished by technology is revealed through this account of the wheelwright's trade in the late nineteenth century. A new foreword by E. P. Thompson places this work among the classics of labor history.

A Canto Book

44772-0 Paper $10.95

The Printing Revolution in Early Modern Europe

Elizabeth L. Eisenstein

"Eisenstein's effort to reorganize her volume for a wider public is a successful one. Her arguments are still well developed, still provocative, and now sharply focused." —ISIS

A Canto Book

44770-4 Paper $11.95

The Invention of Tradition

Eric Hobsbawm and Terence Ranger

Many of the traditions we think of as very ancient in their origins were not in fact sanctioned by long usage over the centuries, but were invented relatively recently. This book explores examples of this process of invention and the attempts by radical movements to develop counter-traditions of their own.

Contributors: David Cannadine, Bernard S. Cohn, Hugh Trevor-Roper, Eric Hobsbawm, Prys Morgan, Terence Ranger

A Canto Book

43773-3 Paper $10.95

BRITISH LITERATURE and LANGUAGE

New from PENGUIN USA

THE COMPLETE POEMS

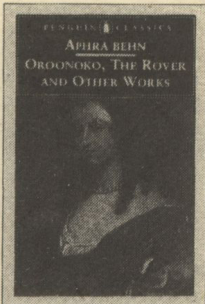

Emily Jane Brontë

Edited with

an Introduction by Janet Gezari

Twenty-one passionate songs of the spirit and of nature, first published pseudonymously in 1846, were the only poems Brontë published in her lifetime. Long unavailable in a complete edition, the poems are here arranged—along with manuscript versions of her nearly 200 posthumously published poems—in chronological order of composition. 352 pp.

Penguin Classic 0-14-042352-4 $10.95

OROONOKO, THE ROVER and OTHER WORKS

Aphra Behn

Edited with *an Introduction

by Janet Todd*

"All women together ought to let flowers fall upon the tomb of Aphra Behn, for it was she who earned them the right to speak their minds."—Virginia Woolf. This rich, surprising sampler includes "The Rover," "The Window Ranter," Oroonoko, The Fair Jilt, and a selection of poetry. 400 pp.

Penguin Classic 0-14-043338-4 $7.95

PLAYS FROM THE CONTEMPORARY BRITISH THEATER

Edited with

an Introduction by Brooks McNamara

What the Butler Saw, Joe Orton. The Changing Room, David Storey. Plenty, David Hare. Betrayal, Harold Pinter. Pack of Lies, Hugh Whitmore. The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby, adapted by David Edgar. 480 pp.

Mentor paperback 0-451-62851-9 $6.99

CASTLE RACKRENT and ENNUI

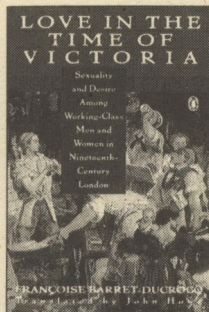

Maria Edgeworth

Edited with

an Introduction by Marilyn Butler

These two novels—written by perhaps the most outspoken advocate of women's education during the early 19th century—comprise, as Marilyn Butler states in her Introduction, "perhaps the boldest... most influential contribution to English language fiction by a woman writer before Charlotte Brontë and George Eliot." 368 pp.

Penguin Classic 0-14-043320-1 $8.95

LOVE IN THE TIME OF VICTORIA Sexuality and Desire

Among Working-Class Men and Women in Nineteenth-Century London Françoise Barret-Ducrocq

Translated by John Howe

Utilizing firsthand documents uncovered in the now-closed archives of a London foundling hospital—letters from women discussing love and sex, romance and rape, flirtation and pregnancy—Barret-Ducrocq offers a marvelously accurate census of Victorian sexual and moral attitudes. 240 pp.

Penguin paperback 0-14-017326-9 $11.00

Also Available in May 1993:

THE PENGUIN BOOK OF ENGLISH FOLKTALES

Neil Philip, editor

Penguin paperback 0-14-013976-1 $13.00

For our free Literature catalog, please call 212-366-2372.

PENGUIN USA

Academic Marketing Department, 375 Hudson Street, New York, New York 10014-3657

THE WAR FOR AMERICA, 1775–1783

Piers Mackesy

Introduction by John W. Shy

“Mackesy’s War for America still stands as the classic account of the British conduct of the American Revolutionary War. Based on extensive research in British archives, it embodies the mature judgments of a masterful military historian.”—John W. Shy.

In this vivid history Piers Mackesy views the American Revolution from the standpoint of the British government and the British military leaders as they attempted to execute an overseas war of great complexity. Their tactical response to the American Revolution is now comprehensible, seen as part of a grand imperial strategy. $16.95 paper

Available at bookstores.

“N”

University of Nebraska Press 901 N 17 • Lincoln, NE 68588-0520 • 800-755-1105

