Figures

I.I	A Greeting task from the corpus.	page 9
1.2	An example of a division of a stretch of text into two
	discourse units.	17
4.I	An example of an Informational Narrative.	105
5 . I	Features appearing in 5 per cent or more of the L1 turns which do not appear in 5 per cent or more of the L2 turns.	135
5.2	Features present in the Informational Narrative function in the TLC – grammatical functions emboldened are shared with the TLC L1 Informational Narrative function and those functions underlined are present in Example 53.	158
6.1	A Situation-Dependent Commentary discourse unit	Í
	from Spoken BNC 2014 file SXRR.	175
8.1	A narrative split across two discourse units.	208