LIBRARIES AND ARCHIVES

Akademische Druck Has Catalogues on Series

A special catalogue, Americana, issued by the Akademische Druck, contains bibliographical data on important works of ancient America published by the institution. Listed publications include facsimile editions of ancient Mexican manuscripts; included in the series Codices Selecti are the Codices Becker I/II, Codex Vindobonensis Mexicanus I, Codex Egerton 2895 (Codex Waecker Götter), Codex Tro-Cortesianus (Codex Madrid), Codex Peresianus (Codex Paris), Codex Laud, Codex Cospi, Codex Magliabecchiano CL.XIII.3 (BR 232), and Codex Vaticanus B (Codex Vaticanus 3773). Another series, Bibliotheca Linguistica Americana, includes such publications as Vocabulario de Mayathan, by Diego Rejón Arias, and Arte de la lengua maya by Gabriel de San Bonaventura. Information is available from Akademische Druck-u. Verlagsanstalt, Graz, Austria.

Brandeis University Acquires Bolivian Collection

The Brandeis University Library recently acquired a collection on politics and union activity in Bolivia from Guillermo Lora, secretary general of the Partido Obrero Revolucionario of Bolivia. The collection contains approximately 500 books and pamphlets dealing with material on the twentieth century, with extensive coverage of political parties, the labor movement in Bolivia, the 1952 revolution, and political crises of the Barrientos regime. Information is available from the library, Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts 02154.

Center for Inter-American Relations Pursues Maya Glyphs Project

A $50,000 grant from the Stella and Charles Guttman Foundation has initiated a project sponsored by the Center for Inter-American Relations, Inc., to prepare a universal looseleaf corpus of accurate reproductions of all known Maya hieroglyphs. The project is the first step in a long-term effort to translate the ancient Maya writing. Appointed director of planning for the program is Ian Graham, Peabody Museum, Harvard University. An advisory committee has also been appointed; members are Edgar Brenner, Guttman Foundation, chairman, Ignacio Bernal, Instituto Nacional de Antropología e Historia, México, Stanton Catlin, Center for Inter-American Relations, Michael Coe, Yale University, Gordon Ekholm, American Museum of Natural History, Floyd Lounsbury, Yale University, Luis Jujan Muñoz, Instituto Nacional de Antropología e Historia, Guatemala, and Tatiana Proskouriakoff, Harvard University. Requests for further information or suggestions are welcomed by the program director for the Center for Inter-American Relations, 680 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10021.

Caribbean Regional Bibliographical Center Reports

Director of the Centro Bibliográfico Regional del Caribe is Paulita C. Maldonado de la Torre, Caribbean Regional Library, Avenida Ponce de León 452, Apartado 1058, Hato Rey, Puerto Rico. The library, formerly the Library of the Caribbean Organization, was and is under the trusteeship of CODECA, the Caribbean Economic Development Corporation. In cooperation with the Institute of Caribbean Studies, University of Puerto Rico, the library has resumed publication of the Current Caribbean Bibliography and Supplement. After Volume 16 (1966), the monthly supplements and annual volumes will utilize punched cards and computer listings. Subscription rate is $20.00.

Uruguayan Historical Encyclopedia Published

To be published during 1969, the Enciclopedia Uruguaya comprises six volumes. Each volume is composed of two tomes which contain, respectively, articles on Uruguayan culture, history, personalities, institutions, economy, and literature; and selected texts which reflect the original thought concerning the subjects covered in the related tome. The encyclopedia is produced under the general editorship of Angel Rama. Cost of the entire set is $72.00, for a single volume $14.00, or by subscription of weekly numbers. Requests may be addressed to Julio Bayce, Editorial ARCA/REUNIDOS, Colonia 1263, Montevideo, Uruguay.

Guatemalan National Atlas to be Published

The Instituto Geográfico Nacional de Guatemala announces the forthcoming publication of the Guatemalan National Atlas. To be available in June 1970, the Atlas will include sections on climate, physical geography, biogeography, human resources, and economic activity. Varying numbers of maps with accompanying text will comprise each section; approximately 75 maps are to be included. The maps are generally on the scale of 1:1,000,000, except where data warrant the use of smaller scales. The Atlas will also contain a general bibliography. For information, write Javier Morales M., sub-director, Instituto Geográfico Nacional, Avenida Las Américas 5-76, Zona 13, Guatemala, Guatemala, C.A.

Spanish Materials Microfilmed by Louisiana

The Louisiana Division of the New Orleans Public Library has announced that it will supply microfilm copies of Records and Deliberations of the Cabildo (New Orleans), 1769-1803. The English translation consists of four rolls; the original Spanish is in three rolls of typescript. Microfilmed rolls (at $7.50 each) will be forwarded to persons requesting them, from the New Orleans Public Library, 219 Loyola Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana 70140.

Oxford University Library Catalogs Mexican Pamphlets

The Bodleian Library of Oxford University has recently catalogued in depth a collection of Mexican pamphlets, most of which were printed between 1820 and 1827. The pamphlets, previously only catalogued under a general heading, are bound in some 40 volumes. Major authors represented in the collection, which was obtained by the library in 1875, include José Fernández de Lizardi and Pablo de Villavicencio. Plans are being made to publish a full analytical catalogue of the pamphlet collection. Queries may be directed to Colin Steele, Bodleian Library, Oxford University, Oxford, England.

PAIGH Committee on Applied Geography Has Microfilm Project

The Committee on Applied Geography of the Pan American Institute of Geography and History has undertaken a project to disseminate in microfilm form current statistical data for Latin American countries. Library of Congress holdings of socio-economic statistics are to be reproduced. University libraries which choose to participate in the project by purchasing the film will share the cost of reproduction and positive printing. Total cost to the libraries will depend on the number of participating institutions; it is expected that, with 20 universities subscribing, each library can obtain all holdings reproduced for less than $500. Information is available from Robert N. Thomas, vice president of the Committee, Department of Geography, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Indiana, Pennsylvania 15701.

Soviet Latin American Institute Prepares Encyclopedia

The Latin American Institute of the U.S.S.R. Academy of Sciences, in cooperation with Soviet Encyclopedia Publishers, is preparing an encyclopedia on Latin America. To be published in two volumes, the encyclopedia will contain references to the geography, history, population, economy, science, and culture of the Latin American countries. Information is available from the editor, Victor V. Volsky, director, Instituto de América Latina, Academia de Ciencias de la U.R.S.S., B. Ordinka, 21, Moscow V-35, U.S.S.R.

Times of Havana Available in Microfilm

Eight rolls of microfilm, comprising issues of the Times of Havana which appeared between February 4, 1957 and November 8, 1960, when it was confiscated, may be purchased for $125.00. Requests for information may be addressed to Micro-Photo Division, Bell & Howell Company, 1700 Shaw Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44107.

Latin American Teaching Fellowships

Fellowship and internship opportunities under the Latin American Teaching Fellowships program are available for the 1970-71 academic year. Applicants should be graduate students in the social and natural sciences who have completed all preliminary requirements except dissertation for the PhD, or recent recipients of LLB or MBA degrees. Fluency in Spanish or Portuguese is required prior to departure for Latin America. L.A.T.F. Fellows spend approximately half time teaching in a Latin American university, generally under the immediate supervision of a senior Latin American professor. The other half time is available for research and/or internship activities. More than 60 L.A.T.F. Fellows have been teaching in universities in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Mexico, Peru, Uruguay and Venezuela. Applications and further information can be obtained by writing: Gary A. Glenn, Associate Director, Latin American Teaching Fellowships, Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University, Medford, Massachusetts 02155.
