The Rediscovery of Newman

Published in conjunction with Sheed and Ward Ltd

John Coulson and A. M. Allchin

45s. net

"In England, Newman studies have tended to be historical, biographical or literary. Meanwhile, continental scholars have been rediscovering Newman as one of the foremost theologians of his age . . . and immediately relevant for his insights into the philosophy of religion and for the ecumenical direction of his thinking . . . This is a solid piece of co-operative thinking, which demands study and will repay it."

Charles Smyth: View Review

The Church's Use of the Bible

D. E. Nineham: Editor

12s. 6d. net

An invaluable historical introduction to which a team of outstanding experts contribute.

Marriage Preparation

Library of pastoral Care

Martin Parsons

12s. 6d. net

Sound advice about the personal relations of the clergy with couples they are to marry is combined with practical and legal details they need to know when preparing people for marriage. Mr Parson's wide parochial experience enables him to distinguish between the counsel of perfection and what is generally applicable.

THE PHILOSOPHICAL JOURNAL

Transactions of the Royal Philosophical Society of Glasgow

The Philosophical Journal is published on behalf of the Royal Philosophical Society of Glasgow which was founded in 1802 and has, in changing circumstances, maintained its role as a forum for study and discussion on matters of public concern and interest.

The Society has always provided common ground for the expert and the interested enquirer; this outlook is reflected in the contents of The Philosophical Journal which offers papers on a variety of topics, scientific, literary, historical and philosophical, written with intellectual integrity but free from technical or professional jargon. Some papers record the substance of lectures given before the Society and others are specially commissioned or contributed. Book reviews are included in each issue.

Since its inauguration in 1964 the Journal has achieved a wide circulation, both in universities and among interested members of the public from many countries.
