OUTSTANDING NEW LITERATURE from PENGUIN USA

A HAMMOCK BENEATH THE MANGOES

Stories from Latin America

Edited by Thomas Colchie

Universally masterful yet unmistakably Latin American, A Hammock Beneath the Mangoes represents a concentration of some of the most celebrated authors of contemporary literature. The 26 stories, many never before published in English, enriched by short author biographies and arranged geographically—Argentina, Chile, Brazil, Mexico, and the Caribbean—include such authors as Manuel Puig, Isabel Allende, Jorge Amado, Carlos Fuentes, and Reinaldo Arenas. 416 pp.

THE GENERAL IN HIS LABYRINTH

Gabriel García Márquez

"A major literary event... and a moving tribute to an extraordinary man."—Margaret Atwood, The New York Times Book Review. Gabriel García Márquez remains not only a towering example of the finest in Latin American literature, but of the world. In this work, the Nobel Prize winning author supplies literary flesh and blood to Simon Bolivar, a man who ranks among history's finest generals, as he lies on his death bed, reminiscing on his past glories and failures. "Márquez has shown us the power of the world, imagining a continent whose landscape—melancholy, endlessly nostalgic, and profusely magical—is now forever a part of the world's literary consciousness."—The Boston Sunday Globe. 288 pp.

THE TOWER STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Fernando Arrabal

Translated by Anthony Kerrigan

"Wildly exotic, the book merges the provocative principles of abstract theater into the free fantasy of prose, brilliantly executed by Spain's master of the absurd."—The Los Angeles Times Book Review. Filled with leftist politics, Freudian psychology, religious philosophy, and modern European history, this intellectual thriller portrays two men competing for the chess World Championship when they are interrupted by the startling news of the kidnapping of a Soviet official. What evolves is a fierce contest of egos, manipulations, and ideologies as Tarsias, an artist and former monk, believes his opponent Amary, a world-renowned physicist, is behind the crime. 256 pp.
