

CALENDAR OF MEETINGS

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON INCOME, CONSUMPTION AND PRICES The Institut für Iberoamerika-Kunde and The Brookings Institution organized this meeting with the cooperation of the Organization of American States and the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD). Robert Ferber, Illinois, A. von Gleich, and G. Wipplinger, Institut für Iberoamerika-Kunde, organized the program of this International Conference. The following papers dealt specifically with Latin America:

Hamburg, Germany
October 1-3, 1973

Arturo Meyers, OAS, Latin America;
Roger Betancourt, The Effect of Inflation on Patterns of Consumption: Latin America;

Jorge Salazar, The Brookings Institution, Comparisons with Latin America;
Adolfo Figueroa, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú, and Richard Weisskoff, Yale, International Comparisons of Income Distribution: Latin America;

Alejandro Foxley, Universidad Católica de Chile, Economic Development and Income Distribution in Latin America.

EDUCATION AND POPULATION IN LATIN AMERICA

University of Houston
October 5-6, 1973

The Latin American Studies Program of the University of Houston sponsored this meeting on Education and Population. Philip B. Taylor organized the program. Participants included: Kingsley Davis, California-Berkeley; Raúl Urzúa, Catholic University, Chile; Edgardo Castañeda, Programa de Construcción de Enseñanza Media, Guatemala; Brady B. Tyson, American University; John Carpenter, U.S. Office of Education; Michael Todaro, Rockefeller Foundation; Melvin S. Droubay, Houston; and William S. Harrell, Houston.

U.S.-MEXICO ECONOMIC RELATIONS SEMINAR

Tempe, Arizona
October 8-11, 1973

The USIS and Arizona State University Center for Latin American Studies sponsored this seminar at Arizona State University. Harry Iceland, ACAO, American Embassy,

Mexico City, and Lewis A. Tambs, CLAS, organized the program on U.S.-Mexico relations with an economic emphasis. The luncheon address was presented by Raúl Castro. David Weber spoke on Foreigners in Their Native Land: The Historical Roots of the Mexican American. A Round Table discussion in English was held on New Directions in the Mexican Economy. The following formal sessions were held (all in Spanish):

Alfred Hagan, ASU, European Common Market & Mexico;

Jack Shroll, VNB, U.S. Banks and Mexican Loans;
 C. W. Parker, Interamerican Consultants Inc., Reaction of U.S. Business Community in Mexico to New Investment Laws;
 José Gibernau, Dial-Armour Int'l, Multinational Corporations in Mexico;
 Manuel Servín, ASU, Mexico & the Mexican American;
 Jerry Ladman, ASU, U.S.-Mexican Agricultural Technological Transfer;
 Dale Furnish, ASU, Legal Aspects of the Colorado River Salinity Problems;
 Antonio Certosimo, Arizona Mexico Commission, The Arizona Mexico Commission;
 Donald Baerresen, Thunderbird, Border Industrialization Program; Shoshana Tancer, Thunderbird, Mexican Economic Nationalism & Japanese Investment Policies;
 Robert Mings, ASU, U.S.-Mexico Tourist Industry.

For additional information contact the Center for Latin American Studies, Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona 85281.

WISCONSIN COUNCIL OF LATIN AMERICANISTS
 La Crosse, Wisconsin
 October 12-13, 1973

The fall meeting of the Wisconsin Council of Latin Americanists was held at Viterbo College and included the following papers:

- I. Richard Callan, New Hampshire, Some Repercussions of the Brevísima in Literature; Gerard Flynn, Wisconsin-Milwaukee, and Edward Schuster, Loras College, discussants.
- II. Donald J. Van Stralen, Marquette, A Survey of the Patronato and its Effect upon Church and State in Latin America;
 Robert Knowlton, Wisconsin-Stevens Point, and Pierre Hegy, Marquette, discussants.
- III. Antonio Alonso Avila, College of Saint Teresa, La explosión demográfica en América Latina; Ubaldo Alvarez, La Crosse Clinic, and Melvin Bloom, Wisconsin-Stevens Point, discussants.
- IV. Rodolfo Cortina, Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Toward a Literary Biogram of the Puerto Rican Personality; Nelia Olivencia Singer, La Crosse, and Amado Lay, Gustavus Adolphus College, discussants.
- V. Miguel Morales, Milton College, El derecho consuetudinario de los Mayas; Horacio Roque Núñez, Laurentian University, and Frank Lamelas, The College of Racine, discussants.
- VI. James Parker, Wisconsin-La Crosse, John C. Spooner, Latin American Imperialist, 1899-1905;
 Robert Davis, Luther College, and Kenneth Grieb, Wisconsin-Oshkosh, discussants.
 LaVonne Abts, University of El Salvador (1970-1972) gave a major address on El Salvador: Some Aspects of its Educational, Economic and Political Problems.

Latin American Research Review

For further information on the Wisconsin Council of Latin Americanists contact Armando Alonso, Department of Foreign Languages, Viterbo College, La Crosse, Wisconsin 54601.

IV INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF MEXICAN STUDIES Santa Monica, California October 17–21, 1973

The University of California, Los Angeles, Latin American Center, hosted this meeting of the Congress of Mexican Studies. The focus of the Congress was narrowed to Contemporary Mexico (with two sessions devoted to legacies from precolonial, colonial, and nineteenth century eras). Papers presented to this conference were summarized and not read, which resulted in two hour discussion periods and an expanded number of panel discussions. The following sessions were held:

I. Introductory Views: Past, Present and Future of Contemporary Mexico

Alejandra Moreno Toscano, El Colegio de México, presiding;

José Emilio Pacheco, Instituto Nacional de Antropología e Historia, with Carlos Monsiváis, INAH, Culture;

Martin Needler, New Mexico, Politics;

Manuel Gollás, El Colegio de México, with Adalberto García Rocha, El Colegio de México, Economics;

Carmelo Mesa-Lago, Pittsburgh, Economics;

Calman J. Cohen, Smithsonian, Sociology;

Ralph L. Beals, UCLA, Anthropology.

II-A. Legacies of the Past: Prehispanic and Colonial

Richard E. Greenleaf, Tulane, presiding;

Angel Palerm, INAH and Universidad Iberoamericana, Prehispanic;

Jean-Pierre Berthe, Université de Paris, Colonial;

Woodrow Borah, California, Berkeley, Colonial;

Jacques Lafaye, Université de Paris, Colonial.

II-B. Legacies of the Past: Nineteenth Century

Luis González, El Colegio de México, presiding;

Alejandra Moreno Toscano, joint paper with Enrique Florescano, INAH;

Charles Harris, New Mexico State.

III. Periodization

John Womack, Jr., Harvard, presiding;

Jean Meyer, Perpignan;

Eugenia Meyer, Programa de Historia Oral;

Albert L. Michaels, joint paper with Marvin Bernstein, SUNY, Buffalo;

Francisco Javier Alejo, Fondo de Cultura Económica;

Jean Franco, Stanford;

Eduardo Blanquel, UNAM.

IV. Regional Mexico

Michael C. Meyer, Arizona, presiding;
 Eduardo Pontones, Banco de México;
 Luis González, El Colegio de México;
 Francisco Almada, Instituto Chihuahuense de Estudios Históricos;
 Heather Fowler Salamini, Bradley;
 Richard W. Wilkie, Massachusetts, Amherst;
 Friedrich Katz, Chicago;
 Claude Bataillon, Toulouse.

V. The Study of the Chicano: Perspectives from the U.S. and Mexico

Rodolfo Alvarez, UCLA, presiding;
 Juan Gómez-Quiñones, UCLA;
 Stanley Robe, UCLA;
 Amado Padilla, California, Santa Barbara;
 Luis Dávila, Indiana;
 Jorge Bustamente, UNAM;
 Raúl Béjar Navarro, UNAM.

VI-A. International Relations

Mario Ojeda Gómez, El Colegio de México, presiding;
 Clark W. Reynolds, Stanford;
 Lyle C. Brown, Baylor;
 Orhan Bayaz, Heidelberg;
 Olga Pellicer de Brody, El Colegio de México;
 Horst Drechsler, Universität Rostock.

VI-B. Institutional History

Romeo Flores Caballero, El Colegio de México, presiding;
 Josefina Vázquez de Knauth, El Colegio de México, Education;
 Rodrigo Medellín, Centro de Estudios Educativos, Education;
 Alicia O. de Bonfil, Programa de Historia Oral, Church;
 Ramón Ruiz, California, San Diego, Labor;
 Alvaro Matute, UNAM, Law and Justice;
 David Ronfeldt, Rand Corp., Military.

VII. Political Parties

Daniel Cosío Villegas, El Colegio de México, presiding;
 Frank Brandenburg, Rio de Janeiro;
 Arnaldo Córdova, UNAM;
 Susan Kaufman Purcell, UCLA, joint paper with John Purcell, California State, Fullerton;
 Fernando Pérez Correa, UNAM;
 Peter Smith, Wisconsin, Madison;
 Roger D. Hansen, Office of U.S. Trade Negotiations.

VIII. Reflections on Contemporary Mexico

Latin American Research Review

Rafael Segovia, El Colegio de México, presiding;
Romeo Flores Caballero, El Colegio de México, Present and Future Projects;
Stanley R. Ross, Texas, Present and Future Projects;
Clark W. Reynolds, Stanford, Analysis of and Lacunae in the Congress;
Daniel Cosío Villegas, El Colegio de México, Analysis of and Lacunae in the Congress.

The proceedings opened on October 17 with a luncheon address by Lewis Hanke, American Historical Association. Banquet addresses were also presented by: Nettie Lee Benson, President of the IV International Congress of Mexican Studies; Miguel León Portilla, UNAM; Stanley R. Ross, Hispanic American Historical Review; Francisco Javier Alejo, Fondo de Cultura Económica; and Thomas F. McGann, Latin American Research Review. Roundtable speeches on October 20 were given by Potash, Chevalier, Gonzalez, and Navarro. Peter Furst's Film, "To Find our Life: The Peyote Hunt of the Huichols of Mexico" was shown on Friday evening.

For additional information write to: James W. Wilkie, Latin American Center, University of California, Los Angeles, California 90024.

MID-WEST ASSOCIATION FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES Terre Haute, Indiana October 26–27, 1973

The Mid-West Association for Latin American Studies held their 1973 meeting on the campus of Indiana State University. Roy Zillman organized the program on the topic

"Racial Relations in Latin America." Rafael Posada presented a dinner address, The Do's and Don'ts of North Americans in Latin America. The following presentations were made at three conference sessions:

John Harrigan, The Emergence of an Urban Growth Strategy in Brazil;
Bruce Solinick, Race Relations in the Caribbean: An Historian's Viewpoint;
C. Harvey Gardiner, The Development of Anti-Japanese Sentiment in Peru, 1899–1941;
Jerry W. Cooney, Black Servitude and its Abolition: Paraguay, 1811–1870;
James W. Brown, Mario Vargas Llosa on Peruvian Racism;
Gerald Flynn, The Black Poetry of Sorjuana: Villancicos.

The next meeting of the Mid-West Association for Latin American Studies is planned for fall 1974. For information write: Professor Ken Mecum, DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana 46135.

NEW ENGLAND COUNCIL OF LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES, INC. Durham, New Hampshire October 27, 1973

This annual fall meeting of the New England Council of Latin American Studies, Inc. was held at the University of New Hampshire. The program consisted of three simultaneous morning sessions followed by lunch and a single afternoon panel. The following topics were considered:

I. The Preservation of National Cultures

Benson Saler, Brandeis, presiding;

David Maybury-Lewis, Harvard, and Eva Hunt, Boston, panelists.

II. The Literature of Protest in Latin America

Robert G. Mead, Jr., Connecticut, presiding;

Luis B. Eyzaguirre, Connecticut, and Roberto Marquez, Hampshire, panelists.

III. Chilean Working Class Politics in Historical and Contemporary Perspective

Brian Smith, Yale, presiding;

Atilio Boron, Facultad Latinoamericana de Ciencias Sociales, Santiago de Chile, José

Luis Rodríguez, Yale, and Van Whiting, Yale, panelists.

IV. Changing Patterns of Inter-American Relations

John N. Plank, presiding;

Lawrence Birns, New School of Social Research, Daniel M. Schydrowsky, Boston, and

Csanad Toth, Inter-American Foundation.

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES ASSOCIATION

Southern Regional Conference

Atlanta, Georgia

November 1-3, 1973

The Southern Regional Conference of the ISA was held in conjunction with the meetings of the Southern

Political Science Association at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel, Atlanta.

Four papers presented in conference workshops concerned Latin America:

James D. Cochrane, Tulane, and William P. Avery, Tulane, Social Contexts in Latin America;

Charles Prysby, North Carolina at Greensboro, Social Context and Left Voting:

Working Class Support for the Chilean FRAP;

Pierre-Michel Fontaine, Atlanta, The Multinational Corporation and the Politics of Control and Influence: The Experience of the Caribbean and Latin America;

James McBrayer, Jr., Georgia Institute of Technology, Latin America: International Trade and Politics.

For information on the International Studies Association write to ISA, University Center for International Studies, G-7 Mervis Hall, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa. 15260.

TWENTY-FIRST SEMINARIO ECIEL

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

January 10-15, 1974

The Fundação Getúlio Vargas sponsored this seminar. Juan J. Buttari,

Brookings Institution, organized the program on the theme, Progress of Research Studies on Latin American Economic Development and Integration. Participants included researchers of the twenty-three Latin American economic institutions which make up the Program of Joint Studies of Latin American Economic Integration which is known as ECIEL.

Latin American Research Review

A summary describing the agreements reached and some of the papers delivered will be published in February 1974. The next meeting of ECIEL will take place in July 1974 in Caracas. For more information write to: ECIEL, Brookings Institution, 1775 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.

SOCIEDAD MEXICANA
DE SOCIOLOGIA
Primer Congreso
Patzcuaro, México
January 14–18, 1974

Raúl Benítez Zenteno and José Luis Reyna organized the program for this meeting of the Mexican Sociology Association. The following were presented in the fields of sociology and social anthropology:

- Roger Bartra, Tenencia de la tierra en la sociedad azteca;
Raúl Bejar Navarro, Liberalismo y nueva sociedad. El caso de México;
Raúl Benítez Zenteno, Población y desarrollo en la historia de México;
Jean Casimir, Las clases sociales en la provincia mexicana;
Enrique Contreras, Estructura agraria, federaciones sindicales y movimientos campesinos en América Latina;
Leonel Durand, Eliasismo: un movimiento social religioso contemporáneo;
Victor Manuel Durand P., Estructura de la dependencia en México de 1910 a 1934;
Gloria González Salazar, Mercado de trabajo e integración social;
Fernando Holguín Quiñones, La investigación de campo sobre problemas de productividad en la agricultura;
Isabel Horcacitas de Pozas, Los talleres de investigación y la formación de investigadores;
M. Regina J. de Ottalengo, Las fuentes de información periodística en México;
Julio Labastida, Algunas hipótesis sobre el "modelo político mexicano" y sus perspectivas;
Luis Leñero Otero, Urbanización e industrialización y la familia en México;
Alejandro Martínez J., Algunas relaciones entre desarrollo y la expansión educativa;
Adolfo Mir Araujo, Estructura social e instrucción primaria en México;
Humberto Muñoz, Fuerza de trabajo y estructura ocupacional en la Ciudad de México;
Margarita Nolasco Armas, Proceso de urbanización;
Orlandina de Oliveira, Migraciones internas y la fuerza de trabajo en el Area Metropolitana de la Ciudad de México;
Gerard Pierre Charles, Apuntes sobre la teoría de la dependencia y teoría del imperialismo;
Ricardo Pozas Arciniega, Los indios en las clases sociales. Diseño de investigación;
Sergio Ramos Galicia, Hacia una teoría general de la historia;
Calixto Rangel Contla, Formas de transformación o de producción;
José Luis Reyna, Control político y clase obrera en México;
Ma. Luisa R. S. de Gómezgil, Estudio sobre temas de sociología de la ciencia en México;

Rodolfo Stavenhagen, La burguesía rural;
 Claudio Stern, Cambios en los flujos migratorios a la Ciudad de México;
 Edelberto Torres Rivas, Elecciones Guatemala-Costa Rica;
 Enrique Valencia, Los conceptos de integración social y formación social en el análisis del marginalismo;
 Manuel Villa A., Conservadurismo y sistema electoral en Chile;
 Arturo Warman, El potencial revolucionario del campesino en México;
 Pablo Gonzalez Casanova;
 Guillermo Bonfil.

For more information on the Congress contact: Ma. Luisa Rodríguez S. de Gómezgil, Instituto de Investigaciones Sociales, Torre de Humanidades, 5º piso, Ciudad Universitaria, Coyoacán 20, D. F., Mexico.

RESEARCH PROBLEMS IN PERU
 Liverpool, England
 February 7–8, 1974

The Centre for Latin American Studies of the University of Liverpool sponsored this meeting on Current Research and Problems of Research

Relating to Modern Peru. J. R. Fisher organized the program. Participants included postgraduate and research students as well as faculty of British universities with an interest in the research relating to Peru. The following papers were presented:

- C. T. Smith, Liverpool, Agrarian Reform and Regional Development;
- J. R. Fisher, Liverpool, Silver Mining at Late Colonial Peru;
- R. M. Miller, Liverpool, Aspects of Peruvian Economy in the Nineteenth Century;
- C. Harding, Cambridge, Agrarian Reform and Agrarian Struggles in Peru;
- R. Thorp, Oxford, The Peruvian Economy from 1900–1940;
- W. S. Pitcher, Liverpool, The Geology in Relation to the Scenery of Occidental Peru.

INDIAN POLICY IN THE AMERICAS: A COMPARATIVE APPROACH
 Fredonia, New York
 March 7–8, 1974

The History Department of the State University College, Fredonia, sponsored this symposium on Indian Policy in the Americas. Participants included Robert M. Utley, Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation, National Park Service; James R. Scobie, Indiana; Stewart Raby, Indian Claims Commission, Ottawa, Canada; William T. Hagan, State University College, Fredonia; Marvin Bernstein, SUNY at Buffalo; and Lewis Hanke, President of the American Historical Association.

The symposium focused on comparative Indian policy in Latin America, Canada, and the United States in the late 19th and 20th centuries. For further information contact the Chairman, Department of History, State University College, Fredonia, New York 14063.