Why "CATHOLIC"?

SOME of our friends—two extreme types—urge us to drop the word CATHOLIC from our title.

On our extreme Right are devoutly religious people, good, practical, orthodox, Catholic souls, morally sound, but limited in their outlook.

These gently urge us that we shall offend not themselves but others like them, if calling ourselves "catholic" we prefer secular to religious topics and show a strong human sympathy with people who happen to be Jews, Quakers, Anglicans, agnostics, and what not.

On our extreme Left are business people interested to increase our sales amongst the general public, and our advertising revenue from commercial sources.

The people with the money, they say, are put off by the word "catholic": to them it describes nothing but a religious sect.

What do YOU think, reader?

We think it is time somebody rubbed it into everybody

- (1) that other things besides religion are, or ought to be, catholic,
- (2) that they cannot be unless, like our firm, they pre-suppose the Catholic faith.

A Dominican Tertiary and the C.T.S.

"I regard this work of the C.T.S. as one of the finest forms of Catholic Action which our Holy Father Pius XI enjoined on us Dominican Tertiaries (who, he said, should be in the very front line of Catholic Action) when he received us in Rome last year."

The writer of the above made his practical response to the Holy Father's exhortation by becoming a member of the C.T.S. Will you do the same? The Society needs a far larger support if its work is to be placed on a footing worthy of the cause. Full particulars from:

Catholic Times

What do you expect to find in a Catholic Newspaper?

CATHOLIC NEWS, OBVIOUSLY, BUT WHAT IS CATHOLIC NEWS?

IT is in the selection of news which it puts before its readers that THE CATHOLIC TIMES pleases so much. The proper place for matters which are exclusively secular is the secular press, but there are many topics which have a mixed secular and religious bearing. You will expect to find the religious aspects of these things treated in your Catholic newspaper, as well as a full budget of Catholic news.

THE CATHOLIC TIMES, the oldest Catholic popular newspaper, knows how to become a newspaper for Catholics when the occasion demands it. It meets all your needs always. Special needs are given more space than in any other Catholic newspaper.

THIS is the Diamond Jubilee Year of THE CATHOLIC TIMES and new readers are taking it up by thousands. Give it a trial and share their pleasure.
