

THE INTERNATIONALIZATION OF PALACE WARS

Lawyers, Economists, and the Contest to Transform Latin American States

Yves Dezalay and Bryant G. Garth

“This book will make a major contribution toward our understanding of what lies beneath such slogans as ‘globalization.’ The authors use the tools of structural sociology to reveal imperial processes—the export of neoliberal economics and a U.S.-based conception of the state—that take place not so much through the imposition of structural adjustment programs or direct coercion, but rather through the import and export of expertise, disciplines, and even idealism. By explaining these very poorly understood processes and showing why they persist, Dezalay and Garth contribute to redefining both our theoretical tools and the intellectual debates now expressed in such misleading terms as globalization versus anti-globalization—or progressive NGOs versus the IMF and the World Bank.”

FELLOWSHIPS at the Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study

The Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study at Harvard University awards about 40 fully funded fellowships each year. Radcliffe Institute fellowships support scholars, scientists, artists, and writers of exceptional promise and demonstrated accomplishment who wish to pursue work in academic and professional fields and in the creative arts. Applicants must have received their doctorate or appropriate terminal degree by December 2001 or have made comparable professional achievements in the area of the proposed project. The Radcliffe Institute welcomes proposals from small groups of scholars who have research interests or projects in common.

The stipend amount is $50,000. Fellows receive office space and access to libraries and other resources of Harvard University. Residence in the Boston area and participation in the Institute community are required during the fellowship year, which extends from September 8, 2003, through June 14, 2004. Fellows are expected to present works-in-progress and attend other fellows' events.

Applications must be postmarked by October 1, 2002. Visit www.radcliffe.edu for more information. For an application, contact: Radcliffe Application Office • 34 Concord Avenue • Cambridge, MA 02138 • 617-496-1324 tel • 617-495-8136 fax • fellowships@radcliffe.edu.
