CENTRAL EUROPEAN HISTORY

Sponsored by the Conference Group for Central European History of the American Historical Association

PUBLISHED QUARTERLY BY
EMORY UNIVERSITY

EDITORIAL POLICY

Central European History publishes articles, bibliographical articles, review articles, and reviews dealing with the history of German-speaking Central Europe. Manuscripts are solicited using all approaches to history, and dealing with all historical periods. Because space is limited, articles which have been or soon will be published elsewhere are not accepted, nor are translations of such articles. Unsolicited book reviews are not accepted. Authors who desire to prepare bibliographical articles are urged to communicate with the editors first. Manuscripts and correspondence should be directed to:

Central European History
Emory University
Atlanta, Georgia 30322

The entire text, including footnotes, of manuscripts submitted for publication must be prepared in double-spaced typescript, with generous margins to allow for copy-editing. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively, and should be placed in a separate section at the end of the text. It has become essential to require two copies of manuscripts, to expedite editorial evaluation and to guard against loss in the mails.

The subscription rates for Central European History for the United States and possessions are as follows (note that individual rates include $6 per year dues to the Conference Group for Central European History):

	INDIVIDUALS	INSTITUTIONS
1 year	$22	$32
2 years	$42	$62
3 years	$60	$90

Student and emeritus rate $7 per year.

For all other countries add $1.50 per year for mailing. Subscriptions are for calendar year only.

Back issues: All back volumes, starting with Volume I (1968), are available at $22 for individuals, $32 for institutions plus $1 per volume for mailing. For student and emeritus prices, and for single issues, please inquire.

Address: Central European History, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia 30322.
