Joint Meeting of the Society with the American Economic Association

On December 29, at 1 P.M., a joint luncheon meeting of the Business Historical Society and the American Economic Association will be held at the Bellevue-Stratford, Philadelphia. Applications for reservations at $1.25 should be sent, not later than December 26, to the Executive Secretary, Soldiers Field, Boston, Massachusetts.

The open discussion, led by J. Franklin Ebersole, Professor of Finance, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, will be on "The Growth of Rigidity in Business." This same topic will be taken up in the morning at the same place at 10 o'clock, when it will be presented as follows:

Papers: During the Middle Ages

N. S. B. Gras, Harvard University

Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries

Violet Barbour, Vassar College

At the Time of John Law

Earl J. Hamilton, Duke University

Since the Industrial Revolution

Herbert Heaton, University of Minnesota

Discussion: Max S. Handman, University of Michigan

Rufus S. Tucker, General Motors Corporation

It is hoped that many of our members will find it possible to attend both the morning meeting and the luncheon.
