The authors wish to clarify a sentence in the abovementioned article. On page 37, the sentence:

“However, we are not arguing that interaction with non-natives can never increase cosmopolitan attitudes—only that interaction, especially with low-status groups, is always risky.”

should read as follows:
