Early Christian Doctrines

By J. N. D. KELLY

Principal, St. Edmund Hall, Oxford University

A full survey of the first creative period of Christian thought from the close of the apostolic age to the council of Chalcedon in the middle of the fifth century. This is the first full-scale treatment of this critical period in fifty years. Here is an excellent, clearly written account of the upsurge of fresh ideas leading to the settled formulations of both East and West. Professor Kelly makes maximum use of the strides in modern scholarship and research. "Extremely well done . . . I believe it will be a standard text in seminaries."—ROBERT GRANT, The Federated Theological Faculty, University of Chicago.

"Clear, precise, and up-to-date . . . invaluable for an understanding of the formative period when the main lines of Christian dogma were laid down . . . a balanced picture of the early controversies in the light of modern scholarship."—CYRIL C. RICHARDSON, Union Theological Seminary. $5.75

The Story of the Christian Church

By WINTHROP S. HUDSON

Professor of the History of Christianity, Colgate-Rochester Divinity School

One of the best introductions available to the unfolding drama of the Christian church throughout the ages. The book covers the major areas of the church's development in a powerful, uninterrupted narrative, made possible by separating all explanatory historical material into sections near the beginning of each chapter. Designed for many types of study and discussion groups, THE STORY OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH is intended for those who desire something more provocative than either a textbook or a brief dramatic account.

"The outlines of church history emerge clearly. . . Its virtue lies in the modesty of intent and the clarity of execution."—MARTIN E. MARTY, Christian Century. $2.25
