FAITH AND ACTION

H. Thielicke and H.-H. Schrey

This book will be welcomed by theological students and all concerned with religious education. It provides a wide survey of contemporary German thought on ethics, using extracts from the works of writers such as Bonhoeffer, Brunner, Barth and Gogarten, together with examples from the works of American writers such as Reinhold Niebuhr and Paul Tillich. The problems discussed include the relationship of ethics to eschatology—God's will and man's responsibility—grace and judgment—and Christian freedom and secularisation.

CONCISE DICTIONARY OF THE CHRISTIAN WORLD MISSION

This is a book to add to your reference shelf. . . .

Here for the first time an attempt has been made to provide in dictionary form somewhat comprehensive information as to the entire process through which in the last five centuries Christianity has grown from a western to a Universal religion.

The book deals with three subjects—countries of the world; biographies of leaders drawn from every race and confession, not forgetting the younger churches, but as far as possible limited to those who have done something new and creative in missionary work; and subjects ranging from acculturation to witchcraft. For the convenience of the reader all articles have been arranged in alphabetical order.

More than two hundred experts have co-operated in the work of the dictionary which is intended, among other things, to be an aid to further study. Short bibliographical information is appended to almost all the articles and in cases in which a longer article is to be found one of the standard works of reference, such as the Dictionary of National Biography, a cross reference is given.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to one of the editors: Rev. Professor T. F. Torrance, 37 Braid Farm Road, Edinburgh, EH10 6LE, Scotland; Rev. Professor J. K. S. Reid, Don House, 46 Don Street, Aberdeen, AB2 1UU, Scotland.

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published in English, or is not being considered by another journal for publication in English. The average length of articles is 5000 words. Although longer articles are accepted, those in excess of 10,000 words cannot be considered.

Contributions (articles and reviews) should be clearly typed in double spacing, and on one side of the paper only. The rule about double spacing applies also to footnotes, which should be used sparingly. Cross-references within the article offered should not be included.

Notes for the editors and instructions for the printer should be attached on separate sheets. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for use in correcting proofs.

Contributors from the United States may use U.S. spellings. Greek and Hebrew words need not be transliterated. Capitalisation should be kept to a minimum; and in particular should not be used in pronouns referring to the Deity.

First proofs of articles and article reviews may be read and corrected by contributors, and should normally be returned to the organising editor within ten days of receipt. Correction should be confined to errors of the printer. More extensive correction can be made only with the concurrence of an editor. No proofs of reviews will be sent.

Contributors of articles and article reviews (but not of reviews) receive 25 free offprints. Extra copies may be bought according to an agreed scale of charges, provided that these are ordered at the time of returning corrected proofs.
