Drug Scenes

A report on drugs and drug dependence by the Royal College of Psychiatrists

This highly authoritative report by a Special Committee of the Royal College of Psychiatrists lays out the facts on the nature and causes of addiction, describes the wide range of problems which can arise from misuse of different substances, debates a series of contentious issues, and puts forward a set of challenging recommendations.

The book is intended for a general market, and will be particularly valuable for those carrying special responsibility in such settings as health and social services, probation, the judiciary, schools and youth work, industry, and the media. It will be an essential course and reading text.
