NEW SERIES

Social License and Dispute Resolution in the Extractive Industries

Cory H. Kent, Shaheez Lalani, Georgios Petrochilos and Andreas R. Ziegler

This first volume in the new series International and Comparative Business Law and Public Policy, is a broad collection offering insights from both renowned academics and practitioners on the intersection of international dispute resolution and the social license to operate in the extractive industries. With its combined academic and practical perspective, the book focuses on mining disputes and addresses a broad array of issues, such as third party funding, grievance and redress, as well as the protection of human rights and the environment. In addition, it is the first work in the market that discusses the proposed rules of the world's first and only Global Natural Resources Dispute Resolution Center (GNDC).
