The British Journal of Music Education is now established in the field as a key publication, nationally and internationally. The aims of the BJME are to provide clear, stimulating and readable accounts of curriculum development and research in music education. Editorial policy is to encourage careful reflection on teaching in schools, colleges and studios.

Articles are invited from those in any way concerned with music education, and, where appropriate, can be of substantial length, though shorter contributions are also acceptable. Potential authors are referred to the notes for contributors (see inside back cover).

Photographs and other illustrations are welcomed.

RILM Abstracts is the world's most complete continuously updated bibliography of music literature. Through its printed, CD-ROM, and online formats, RILM provides general readers and scholars with easy access to all significant music literature—a service supplied nowhere else. RILM Abstracts is more than a mere index: it provides detailed summaries of many references, and every RILM entry itself is indexed in detail.

Anyone who needs quick access to recent music literature, from reviews of blues recordings to the origins of Byzantine church music will find it in RILM. Students, performers, and music historians in all areas benefit from RILM's in-depth coverage.

Using information compiled in its member countries, RILM's staff of professional editors, musicologists, and indexers produces three major research tools:

RILM Abstracts: A cornerstone of every music reference collection. Each volume of this fully annotated bibliography contains references to virtually all serious writing on music within a given year. Its references form the most complete guide available to current publications worldwide, and its abstracts provide summaries of the most significant books and articles of the year.

RILM Cumulative Index: Three separate index volumes, each covering a full five years of the RILM Abstracts annual volumes.

RILM Music Thesauruses: A standard vocabulary for music terminology and place names. The RILM Thesaurus enables the serious researcher to use the indexes most thoroughly and efficiently.

RILM Abstracts on CD-ROM

Beginning in 1991, the complete text of RILM Abstracts from 1970 to 1984—over 100,000 separate entries—is available on CD-ROM. Each year the CD-ROM is updated with a further two years' worth of bibliography.

Cambridge Opera Journal

"...stimulating and entertaining."

Times Higher Education Supplement

Edited by Roger Parker & Arthur Groos
Cornell University

The first interdisciplinary journal devoted to opera, Cambridge Opera Journal has something for every serious opera-lover. It includes topics such as 'Methods and Meaning in Britten's Billy Budd', 'Fidelio and the French Revolution', 'Madame Butterfly: The Story', 'Aria as drama' and much more.

The journal provides a forum for the exchange of ideas from a variety of disciplines including musicology, literature, theatre and history.

Just see what the reviewers say...

"A welcome addition to the growing number of first rate musicological journals, it promises to stimulate scholars and serious opera-lovers alike."

Notes – The Quarterly Journal of the Music Library Association

"Cambridge Opera Journal seems set to carve itself a distinct niche. It is more single-minded than Opera Quarterly, allowing its contributors to focus intently...on a facet of opera that not only appeals to them but...redefines how opera may be viewed."

Times Higher Education Supplement

"All cannons fired for the first number. The effect is splendid."

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The prime aims of the Journal are that articles should be of interest to teachers of music and show evidence of careful and critical enquiry.

Contributions and correspondence should be sent to one of the Editors:

either	Professor John Paynter Department of Music University of York Heslington YORK YO1 5DD	or	Professor Keith Swanwick Department of Music University of London Institute of Education Bedford Way LONDON WC1H 0AL
---------------	---	----	---

Material for review and review copy should be sent to the Review Editor:

Andrew Peggie, 4 Colchester Avenue, Manor Park, London, E12 5LE

SUBMITTED ARTICLES AND REVIEWS

Length	normally between 2,000 and 10,000 words.
Format	typed in double-spacing on A4 or equivalent, one side only, with generous margins and consecutively numbered pages. Author's name should be given on a separate sheet (see Biographical note below) to facilitate the anonymous refereeing process.
Abstract	about 100 words; summarizing the contents of the article; should be typed immediately below the title and above the main text. A note giving details of any acknowledgements should also be included.
Biographical note	of c. 75 words giving author's name, postal address, affiliation, principal publications, etc. should be submitted on a separate cover sheet.
Copies	2 copies of articles and one of reviews should be submitted and one retained for proof-reading.
Language	writing should be clear, and jargon free; subheadings are helpful in long articles.
Stereotyping	all forms of racial and gender stereotyping should be avoided.
Abbreviations, acronyms	Should be given in full at their first mention, bearing in mind that the readership of the journal is an international one, thus Postgraduate Certificate in Education (PGCE).

It is hoped that writers will take the opportunity to present musical examples on tape. Usually a cassette tape is produced once a year, normally following the third issue of the Journal. It will have a maximum duration of ninety-two minutes and may refer to articles in each of the issues.

SUBMITTED TAPES

Type	cassette or open-reel.
Quality	the highest possible to facilitate transfer.
Content	in final edited form.
Examples	should not be numbered on the tape; a written numbered list of items, with timings, should be provided.

ACCEPTED ARTICLES AND REVIEWS

Proofs	writers have the opportunity, with a given deadline, of correcting essential factual errors and any printer's errors.
Copyright	writers are responsible for obtaining necessary permissions to quote copyright material; writers will be requested to assign their copyright to Cambridge University Press.
Offprints	25 free offprints are supplied to writers of published articles, these shared between joint authors; further offprints may be purchased if ordered at proof stage.

QUOTATIONS AND REFERENCES

Please identify these in the text by author and by date in brackets, e.g. '(Holmes, 1981)', and list all references alphabetically by surname on a separate sheet at the end:

format	for books state	for articles state	for articles in books state	other notes only if essential
